Today's Gospel Reflection

1st Reading: Jer 38:4-6, 8-10 * Psalm 40:2-4, 18 *
 2nd Reading: Heb 12:1-4 * Gospel: Lk 12:49-53

THE COSTS OF DISCIPLESHIP

Today's responsorial psalm, Psalm 40, is more familiar to us with the refrain "Here am I, Lord." This "Here am I" is Jeremiah's great prophetic response to God's call. But today's story of Jeremiah and the refrain "Lord, come to my aid!" remind us that there are always two sides to following the call of God. The author of the Letter to the Hebrews knew this, too. He reminded his readers that even weighted down with burdens and sins, we can still persevere by keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus, who himself knew the shame and pain of the cross, but saw beyond it to the joy of sitting at the right of the throne of God. Jesus himself gave the disciples a "sneak preview" of a baptism that would not be as wondrous as the one in the Jordan that inaugurated his ministry, but would be one of fire and anguish. Today's words from scripture may not be terribly soothing, but in their honesty and strength we can acknowledge the difficulties of daily discipleship, and take comfort in the assurance of our own salvation in Christ.

*"[Jesus] endured the cross, despising its shame, and has taken his seat at the right of the throne of God."
 — Hebrews 12:2*

EL COSTO DE SER DISCÍPULO

El Salmo responsorial de hoy, Salmo 40 (39), nos es muy familiar por el refrán "Señor, date prisa en socorrerme". La historia de Jeremías hoy y el refrán "¡Señor, date prisa en socorrerme!" nos recuerda que siempre hay dos caminos para seguir el llamado de Dios. El autor de la Carta a los Hebreos también lo sabía. Él recordaba a sus lectores que aunque nos agobien desgracias y pecados, podemos todavía perseverar si mantenemos nuestros ojos fijados en Jesús, quien también conoció la vergüenza y el dolor de la cruz, pero vio más allá del sufrimiento, el gozo de sentarse a la derecha del trono de Dios.

Jesús mismo dio a sus discípulos una "idea" de un bautismo que no sería tan maravilloso como el del Jordán que inauguró su ministerio, sino de fuego y angustia. Las palabras de la Sagrada Escritura hoy pueden no ser terriblemente apaciguadoras, pero en su honestidad y fortaleza podemos reconocer las dificultades que el discípulo enfrenta a diario, y consolarnos por la seguridad de nuestra salvación en Cristo.

Pastor’s Message

Dear Parishioners and friends,

Why is there a need to register and become part of the parish?

- It is one of the precepts of the Church that one has to support the Church, in particular his parish. It is our duty to be involved in the life of the Church—to continue the mission of our Lord Jesus through His Church, through the parish.
- You will get tax credits on your contribution to the church. Your contribution is recorded, and when you file your income tax returns, you can get a statement from the parish office certifying the amount you have contributed. You may include your contribution towards your tax exemptions for that particular tax year.
- There may come a day when you would need good character reference. Example: When a friend or relative asks you to be a sponsor in their child’s baptism or confirmation in another parish, you will be asked for a certification from the parish where you belong. You may have been participating in the services of the church and giving contributions to the church, but if you are not registered, the parish will have no record of your participation/contribution, and will not be able to certify that you are an active and participating member of the parish. Another example is the experience of Peter (not his real name). He received a Court order to provide a letter of good moral character. He came to our office requesting for a letter of good moral character, but because he is not a registered parishioner, we could not find his name in our records and so we were not able to give him the certification letter.

If you are not yet a member of the parish, now is the time to register and be actively involved in the life of the Church, and of the parish in particular.

Thank you to all who have been involved in our Church and supporting Saint Michael Parish. I thank God for your generosity, goodness and kindness. May God continue to bless you and reward you a hundredfold for your generosity.

Fr. Manny Ediza

PERPETUAL ADORATION CHAPEL is open daily from 8:30am to 8:30pm. It is located adjacent to the parish office.
“Could you not watch one hour with me? Watch and pray that you may not enter into temptation.” (Mk 14:37-38)

If you are unable to get Mass intentions because the Parish calendar is booked, you may purchase a candle at the Divine Mercy or Our Lady of Guadalupe shrines in our church. You may have a candle lit for 7 days, or 42 days. Your intentions will be posted on the wall and included in the Mass. Call the parish office for details. You may also write your prayer intentions in the “Book of Intentions” in the church.

Blessings from St. Michael Academy to the St. Michael Parish Community!

In just one short week, St. Michael Academy students will begin another year of loving, learning, and serving. Our students are prepared to be high school ready, college ready, and heaven ready. It is not too late to register your child in an atmosphere where these qualities are taught, and lived, on a daily basis.

I invite you to call the Academy office and schedule a tour of the school. Please phone: 619-470-4880, or, e-mail: rlewis@stmichaelsandiego.org. Fr. Manny continues to offer a $1,000 discount to new families enrolling in the Academy.

Yours in Christ,
Mary Johnson, Principal

The mission of the Academy is to form young disciples to be spiritually, intellectually, and socially prepared to integrate gospel values for living a Catholic, Christian life in a secular world. We are committed to providing a Christian environment where students experience God through exploration of their lives and the wonders of His creation. The Academy envisions itself as a partner with parents; sharing the educational ministry of the Church.

Culture of Life

ADVANCE DIRECTIVES. In the wake of the 2005, Terri Schiavo case, many authorities urged Americans to complete advance directives. Every state authorizes these legal documents, which allow a person to specify whether and under what circumstances she or he wants life –preserving medical treatment, food or fluids when no longer able to make health care decisions. However, the laws of all but twelve states may allow doctors and hospitals to disregard advance directives when they call for treatment, food, or fluids. Increasingly, health care providers who consider a patient’s “quality of life” too low are denying life-preserving measures against the will of patients and families—and the laws of most states provide no effective protection against this involuntary denial.

The result: in most states, if you want life-saving treatment—or even food and fluids—there is no guarantee your wishes will be honored, even if you make them clear in a valid advance directive.

Please come and pray the Rosary to promote a Culture of Life every Tuesday, 6:30pm in the Church.

YEAR OF FAITH 2012-2013
AÑO DE LA FE

Come, Lord Jesus,
 live in my mind,
 Dwell in my heart,
 be my companion
 on the journey of life.

*Ven, Señor Jesus,
 vive en mi mente,
 vive en mi corazón,
 acompáñame en este vida a la vida eterna.*

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host - by the Divine Power of God - cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who roam throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
