Today's Gospel Reflection

1st Reading: 2 Mc 7:1-2, 9-14 * Psalm 17:1, 5-6, 8, 15 *
 2nd Reading: 2 Thes 2:16 — 3:5 * Gospel: Lk 20:27-38 [27, 34-38]

THE RESURRECTION OF THE DEAD

In the Apostles' Creed we proclaim that we "believe in the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting." Today's readings invite us to explore these beliefs.

The passage from Second Maccabees makes it clear that belief in the resurrection of the dead was not born in Christianity, but in a time preceding Jesus' coming. The martyred brothers proclaim their conviction that God will raise them to new life. No threat of death can bring them to break one of their religious laws. Death of their bodies is no death at all, compared to the spiritual death that would result from transgressing the law.

The silly riddle about marriage put to Jesus in the Gospel gives him an opportunity to speak of the "coming age," when no one will be given in marriage, and no one will be liable to death. Jesus too stresses how ancient is this teaching, attributing this belief to Moses, who knew that God is the God of the living.

"My steps have been steadfast in your paths, my feet have not faltered. I call upon you, for you will answer me, O God."
 — Psalm 17:5-6a

LA RESURRECCIÓN DE LOS MUERTOS

Cada domingo proclamamos: "Creemos en la comunión de los santos, el perdón de los pecados, la resurrección de la carne, y la vida eterna". Las lecturas de hoy nos invitan a explorar estas creencias.

El pasaje de 2 Macabeos deja claro que la creencia en la resurrección de los muertos no se originó en el cristianismo sino antes de la venida de Jesús. Los hermanos mártires y la madre de ellos proclaman su convicción de que Dios los resucitará a una nueva vida. Ningún temor a la muerte puede hacerlos romper una de sus leyes religiosas. La muerte de sus cuerpos no es muerte en absoluto comparada con la muerte espiritual que resultaría de la trasgresión de la ley.

El tonto acertijo sobre el matrimonio que le presenta a Jesús en el Evangelio le da la oportunidad de hablar sobre "el mundo futuro", cuando nadie se casará y nadie morirá. Jesús pone énfasis en la antigüedad de esta enseñanza, atribuyendo esta creencia a Moisés quien sabía que Dios es el Dios de los vivos.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In the seventeenth century, English Catholics, many of them wealthy and well educated, looked to the American colonies as a place to regain a measure of religious freedom. In Ireland, the so-called penal laws were even harsher than in England, as a minority Parliament tried to force the conversion of the population by denying the majority political and economic power. Beginning in 1691, laws were passed that punished dissenters, principally Catholics, but also causing hardship for Jews, Quakers, and others. There were acts forbidding "mixed marriage" or sending children "beyond the seas" for schooling. Catholics were taxed at double the common rate, barred from the legal professions and from university, and not allowed to build churches or own a decent horse.

In 1793 the situation began to change, as it became clear that the economic persecution would not drive the majority away from Catholicism. Gradually, laws were repealed until by 1829 freedom was won, although Catholics at university were ineligible for honors, and until the 1920s when the Republic was formed, the Church of Ireland was the state church, funded by the taxes of all citizens.
