Today's Gospel Reflection

1st Reading: Lv 19:1-2, 17-18 * Psalm 103:1-4, 8, 10, 12-13 *
 2nd Reading: 1 Cor 3:16-23 * Gospel: Mt 5:38-48

GIVE BETTER THAN YOU RECEIVE

Jesus' words in today's Gospel continue to contrast the Jewish law and practice with the practice of the followers of Jesus. Today's Gospel continues with slight variations the formulation:

"You have heard . . ." and "What I say to you is . . ." The old laws of retaliation were once created to soften the severe and vengeful retaliations common among the peoples that surrounded the struggling people of God. The would-be followers of Jesus again feel surrounded by people bent on retaliation. So Matthew presents Jesus, who asks his followers not only not to retaliate at all but to "turn the other cheek."

He asks that his listeners give the one who asks more than he or she seeks. Jesus asks us to love and pray for those of our home country and the alien, the ones who love us and the ones who hate us.

*"Be holy, for I, the LORD, your God, am holy."
 — Leviticus 19:2b*

ES MEJOR DAR QUE RECIBIR

Las palabras de Jesús continúan contrastando la practica y Ley judía con los seguidores de las enseñanzas de Jesús. El Evangelio de hoy continúa con una ligera variación de la frase "Ustedes han oído que se dijo. . ." y "yo les digo que. . ." Las antiguas leyes de venganza se escribieron para mitigar las represalias severas y vengativas tan comunes entre los pueblos que rodeaban al pueblo guerrero de Dios. Aquellas personas que querían ser seguidores de Jesús también estaban rodeadas por personas empeñadas en vengarse. Por lo que Mateo presenta a Jesús pidiendo a sus seguidores que si alguien los golpea en una mejilla que pongan la otra.

Él les pide a las personas que lo escuchan que den más de lo que alguien les pida. Jesús nos pide amar y orar por nuestros conciudadanos y los extranjeros, a los que amamos y a quienes nos odian.

FORGIVENESS

People who cannot forgive others break the bridge over which they must pass if they are to reach heaven; for everyone has a need to be forgiven.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners and friends,

Last week we officially launched the Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA) 2014. We received a total of $2,078.64 from the second collections from all Masses on Sunday, February 16, our first day of ACA 2014. This is a year-round appeal which will end on December 31, 2014.

Thanks to all who supported and generously contributed to the Annual Catholic Appeals. I hope and pray that you will do it again this time. We will show that St. Michael is a good partner in the program of the Diocese. It is our task to continue the mission of the Lord. If we do it for the love of the Lord, and our motivation is for the Mission of Jesus, our heart becomes generous. God will not be outdone in His generosity to us. If we are generous for Him and for the Church, God will not fail us. He will bless us in many ways.

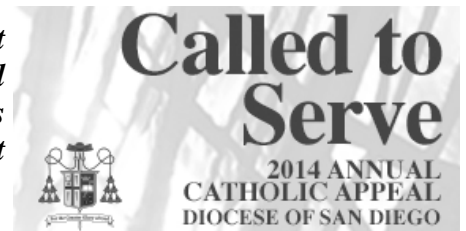

You may have already received your ACA envelope from the mail. However, if you have not received it, you may find ACA envelopes in the pews in the Church, or you may request from the parish office. Please, take one and participate. I am appealing for your support to the programs of the Diocese and of our parish.

I really thank you for your generosity, especially the 710 parishioners and anonymous donors who participated in last year's ACA 2013.

May God bless you for your generosity.

- Fr. Manny Ediza

"A stewardship parish recognizes the living presence of Christ in its midst and sets out to steward this gift of God to all humanity. A stewardship parish receives and delights in this gift and offers to share the abundance of life and love that flows from God."

P.S. Consider including St. Michael Church in your will.

Blessings from St. Michael Academy to the St. Michael Parish Community!

We lead such busy lives; parents, grandparents, even children. It is very difficult to set aside even a little time to be silent. Now think about the difficulty in finding time to be silent, and, focusing on God. We all get caught up in our day to day activities and finding the time and place to just be with God is not easy. This week, our students began practicing the age old art of meditation. Sometime during the day, teachers and students put the worries and cares of the day aside and meditate; just to be with God.

Enrollment/registration is an ongoing process at St. Michael Academy. We are a Kindergarten through 8th Grade school. You are invited to call the office and schedule a tour of the Academy. If you think it is too expensive to send your child to a Catholic school, consider the high cost of regret in not sending your child to a Catholic school. Give us an opportunity to show you how the cost of your child's Catholic education can fit in your budget. Call (619) 470-4880, or e-mail Mrs. Lewis at rlewis@stmichaelsandiego.org. Fr. Manny offers a $1,000.00 discount to new families enrolling in the Academy.

Yours in Christ,
Mary Johnson, Principal

What Catholic education means to me is the ability to be able to be around people who believe the same thing as you. This also means you can talk about God without being judged. Catholic education also means you can learn about your faith, what we believe in, how our religion started, and why it's so pivotal in our lives.

Some things that are different in a Catholic school from a public school is that you can show your faith and love about what you believe in without being persecuted or different. Another thing that's different about Catholic schools is that you get to wear uniforms so that way you can show uniformity and not have to worry about being judged on your fashion.

These reasons make me proud to attend a Catholic school.

Culture of Life

The pro-life movement has a starting point from which all pro-life arguments proceed: the sanctity of human life. For authentically pro-life people this principle is applied consistently across the whole spectrum of human life from fertilization to natural death and even extends to the life of convicted criminals on death row. Although the argument for the sanctity of human life is usually founded upon a belief in God, it can also be held as firmly by atheists and agnostics because it is essentially an argument based on human reason." Reverend Thomas J. Euteneuer

This life in us; however low it flickers or fiercely burns, is still a divine flame which no man dare presume to put out, be his motives ever so humane and enlightened; To suppose otherwise is to countenance a death-wish; either life is always and in all circumstances sacred, or intrinsically of no account; it is inconceivable that it should be in some cases the one, and in some the other." -Malcolm Muggeridge, Something Beautiful for God, 1971

For teenagers facing an unexpected pregnancy: May they know and understand the depths of God's love and mercy and come to see their child as a gift; We pray to the Lord: Lord, hear our prayer.

Please come and pray the Rosary to promote a Culture of Life every Tuesday, 6:30pm in the Church.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Olive oil looms large in the vocabulary of baptism. There are other oils in the pantry closet, from grapeseed to safflower to canola, but only olives yield the proper meanings. Olives don't just happen; they are cultivated, nurtured, pruned, and fussed over; they are a sign of human and divine cooperation. Olives can thrive in poor soil, but they cannot survive without human ingenuity, planting shoots and pruning branches. They can't be popped from a tree and munched like apples: they are inedible without long curing; neither do they yield their oil to hand pressure alone, but only to huge stone mills. Abundant patience is needed as sediment sinks to the bottom of storage barrels and pure oil rises to the surface.
Olive oil is a byproduct of peace: war keeps harvesters, planters, and pruners within city walls and turns millers into soldiers. To obtain oil from olives you need vast measures of hope, patience, faith, and ingenuity. Olive oil is a sign of God's bounty and the way we human beings collaborate with God to bring about impossibly wonderful results. It is creation at its finest. Some people give chocolate eggs for Easter; perhaps olive oil is a more appropriate gift! —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
