AMEN

Take a look around the walls of your church. Even if it's only a year or two old, the word "Amen" has resounded off those walls countless times at the conclusion of the Eucharistic Prayer and as the faithful have come forward to receive the Body and Blood of Christ. Today's feast is about those "Amens" offered in faith, offered in times of trouble or doubt, spoken in joy, spoken mindlessly, but all given to God in a multitude of ways. It is our very lives that lie behind our "Amens" and are touched by the presence of Christ, the presence we celebrate today. More importantly, we celebrate the love of Christ for us shown in the sacrifice on Calvary and that he continues to give to us in every celebration of the Eucharist. What can we do but rejoice in that great love, and then go out into the world and live that love in sacrificing for others?

"Not by bread alone does one live, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of the LORD." — Deuteronomy 8:3b

AMÉN

Mira alrededor de las paredes de tu iglesia. No importa si sólo tiene uno o dos años de construida, la palabra "Amén" ha resonado en sus paredes un número incontable de veces al concluir la Oración Eucarística y cuando los fieles se acercan a recibir el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo. La fiesta de hoy es sobre esos "Amenes" ofrecidos en fe, en momentos de dificultad o duda, pronunciados con alegría, o distraidamente, pero todos entregados a Dios de alguna manera. Nuestra vida misma está detrás de esos "Amenes" que han sido afectados por la presencia de Cristo, la presencia que celebramos hoy. Más importante aún, celebramos el amor de Cristo que nos lo dio en su entrega total en el Calvario y que continúa dándonos en su autosacrificio de cada Eucaristía. ¿Podemos hacer otra cosa que no sea alegrarnos por ese gran amor, y luego salir al mundo a vivir ese amor en nuestro auto-sacrificio por otros?

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners and friends,

This is the conclusion on the teachings of the Catholic Church about the priest and the priesthood.

THE SACRAMENT OF HOLY ORDERS — Part 3 (from the Catechism of the Catholic Church)

The Sins of the Minister. The “presence of Christ in the minister is not to be understood as if the minister is not preserved from all human weaknesses” or even from sin. It means that the priests are not saints nor angels. “The power of the Holy Spirit does not guarantee all acts of ministers in the same way. This “guarantee (of the Spirit) extends to the sacraments, so that even the minister’s sins cannot impede the fruit of grace. In many other acts, however, the minister leaves human traces that are not always signs of fidelity to the Gospel and consequently can harm the apostolic fruitfulness of the Church.” [CCC 1550]

The priests can commit sin. But it is the office of the priesthood of Christ that dispenses grace, not the priests. Priests are only tools or vehicles of Christ’s priesthood to dispense/shower graces.

“The priesthood is ministerial” (ordained to service)... “It depends entirely on Christ and on His unique priesthood; it has been instituted for the good of men and the communion of the Church. The sacrament of Holy Orders communicates a “sacred power” which is none other than that of Christ. Because the sacrament gives him the sacred power of Christ, the minister must follow the model of Christ, Who by love made Himself the least and the servant of all. [CCC 1551]

Representing Christ and the Church. The ministerial priesthood has the task not only of representing Christ—Head of the Church—before the assembly of the faithful, but also of acting in the name of the whole Church when presenting to God the prayer of the Church, and above all when offering the Eucharistic sacrifice. [CCC 1552]

“In the name of the whole Church” does not mean that priests are the delegates of the community. The prayer and offering of the Church are inseparable from the prayer and offering of Christ; it is always the case that Christ worships in and through His Church. The whole Church, the Body of Christ, prays and offers herself “through Him, with Him, in Him”, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to God the Father. The whole Body prays and offers itself, and therefore those who in the Body are especially his ministers are called ministers not only of Christ, but also for the Church. It is because the ministerial priesthood represents Christ that it can represent the Church. [CCC 1553]

Blessings from St. Michael Academy to the St. Michael Parish Community!

Last week I posted the names and achievements of our 8th grade graduates. In keeping with Murphy's Law, the accomplishments of two students were overlooked. Please allow me to stand corrected: Erick Leal participated in the Greater San Diego Science and Engineering Fair and Ryan Flores was a member of the Academic Decathlon. These are noteworthy endeavors and should be recognized.

Before you send your child back to public school, consider the possibility of allowing him/her to grow in a Catholic faith based environment where Catholic values, morals, and spirituality are taught on a daily basis. Enrollment/registration is an ongoing process at St. Michael Academy. We are a Kindergarten through 8th Grade school. Call the office and schedule a tour of the Academy. Give us an opportunity to show you how the cost of your child's Catholic value based education can fit into your budget. Call 619 470-4880, or e-mail Mrs. Lewis @ rlewis@stmichaelsandiego.org. Fr. Manny offers a $1000 discount to new families enrolling in the Academy.

Yours in Christ,

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Ordinary Time beckons, and so on this Sunday we surrender the last glimmers of paschal joy as we celebrate the renewal of our life around the table of the Eucharist. This feast reminds us that the goal of the catechumen's journey through Lent is not the baptismal font at Easter, but rather the experience of Pentecost. It is all about life lived in the Spirit's embrace in relationship to the Body of Christ, which is found both "on the table" and "at the table."

The season of confirmation is also drawing to a close, and this feast serves as a reminder that this sacrament, a solemn sending from font to table, is keyed to renewed vigor. Confirmation has sometimes been sadly misunderstood as a kind of graduation from religious formation, but it is nothing of the sort. It is about being led by the Lord Jesus to the place where the Spirit flourishes, and where the gifts of the Spirit are most easily detectable. After next week we will resume our consideration of the sacrament of confirmation, its rich and somewhat tangled history, its challenging theology, and its changing celebration.

CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION, Sunday, June 22nd. Catholic communities around the world have long observed the Feast of The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, more familiar to us as the Feast of Corpus Christi, in a special way. Traditionally on this day, a procession with the Blessed Sacrament takes place after Mass outside of church, with adoration and special prayers at four specially decorated altars to symbolize the Good News of the Gospel going out to the four corners of the world.

To emphasize our core belief in the Eucharist as the source and summit of all life, we will hold such a procession in honor of the Blessed Sacrament on the Sunday of Corpus Christi, June 22, in conjunction with the 1:00 P.M. Mass. The procession will begin after Communion, proceed outside church, and conclude inside the church with benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Please plan on joining in this very special devotion. For more information, call the Parish Office, (619) 470-1977.

THE EUCHARIST—Just as the bread, which is made from the earth, when God is invoked is no longer common bread but the Eucharist, both earthly and heavenly, so our bodies, after we have received the Eucharist, are no longer corruptible, since they hold the hope of the resurrection.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host - by the Divine Power of God - cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who roam throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
