Today's Gospel Reflection

Vigil: Acts 3:1-10; Ps 19:2-5; Gal 1:11-20; Jn 21:15-19

Day: Acts 12:1-11; Ps 34:2-9; 2 Tm 4:6-8, 17-18; Mt 16:13-19

PETER AND PAUL

Today is something of a rarity: the celebration of a saint's day that replaces the Sunday liturgy. Only a handful of these days, given the official rank of "solemnity," are considered so foundational and primal to the mission of the Church that they can interrupt the Sunday sequence. And so it is with Peter and Paul today.

In a way, they each have personality traits with which we can identify. They are both impetuous, sometimes acting or speaking thoughtlessly, contradicting the spiritual gifts given to them by God. At such times, they might receive a nudge from God, much the same as many of us experience. On the positive side, these men were deeply rooted in their faith in Christ, tireless and fearless in living out their call to spread the Good News of his death and resurrection. Perhaps we might identify more with one or the other, but the essential truth we celebrate today is this: Through the Spirit, Christ built and continues to build the Church and make the kingdom known through fragile, remarkable human beings, each graced in a particular way for the work of the reign of God.

"Through all the earth their voice resounds, and to the ends of the world, their message." — Psalm 19:5

PEDRO Y PABLO

Hoy es una rareza: la celebración del día de un santo que reemplaza la liturgia del domingo. Sólo un puñado de días como éste, con rango oficial de "solemnidad", son considerados tan fundamentales y primarios en la misión de la Iglesia que pueden interrumpir la secuencia de los domingos. Tal es el caso de san Pedro y san Pablo hoy día.

De cierta manera, cada uno tiene rasgos de personalidad con los que nos podemos identificar: ambos son impetuosos, a veces actuando y hablando sin pensar, contradiciendo los dones espirituales que Dios les había dado. En esos casos, tal vez reciben un empujoncito de Dios, como los que muchos de nosotros hemos sentido. En lo positivo, la fe de estos hombres estuvo profundamente fundamentada en Cristo, incansables y valientes cuando vivían su llamado de anunciar la Buena Noticia de su muerte y resurrección. Quizás nos identificamos más con uno que otro, pero la verdad esencial que celebramos hoy es esta: por el Espíritu, Cristo edificó y continúa edificando la Iglesia y da a conocer el Reino por medio de frágiles y notables seres humanos, cada uno con una gracia particular para la obra del Reino de Dios.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners and friends,

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION. Today is an exceptional event on our calendar: the Thirteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time is eclipsed by a solemnity honoring two saints who didn't spend much time together in their earthly ministry, and who have distinct feasts so they probably don't mind sharing this one. Yet each suffered a similar fate in the same city, Rome, during the persecution of the Emperor Nero. Nero probably ordered the destruction of many of the residential neighborhoods in service to his building projects, and when the homeless began to look for someone to blame for the fires, Nero targeted the Christians. Soon, Peter was crucified, upside down, on the Vatican hill. Excavations (called scavi) under the Vatican basilica have proven the authenticity of his burial place near the place of his death. Paul, a Roman citizen, was later granted a swifter execution by sword, and is remembered at a vast basilica on the city's outskirts.

Peter and Paul were just about polar opposites. Peter rough and ready, Paul poetic and polished. Peter carried a burden of regret for his denials, Paul had his own issues with which he struggled. Peter leapt over barriers to go to the Gentiles, Paul strove with and surrendered to the same call. True, they spent very little time together in this life, but the same Spirit filled their hearts and by their witness changed the face of the earth.

—Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

In times of stress, frustration, overwork, sorrow, or even despair, when we are overwhelmed and feel ourselves sinking, let us turn to Saints Peter and Paul. Just as Jesus reached out to save Peter and Paul, so at each Eucharist does Jesus reach out to save us, and with a touch sustains us with the bread of life, the bread about which that Paul writes: "The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because the loaf of bread is one, we, though many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf" (1 Corinthians 10:16-17). Lord, who are you? You are the Bread of Life.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host - by the Divine Power of God - cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who roam throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
