Today's Gospel Reflection

1st Reading: Jos 5:9a, 10-12 * Psalm: Ps 34:2-7 *
 2nd Reading: 2 Cor 5:17-21 * Gospel: Lk 15:1-3, 11-32

A SUNDAY FOR REJOICING

Today's Gospel story of the prodigal son is a favorite of many. We can identify with all the major figures and their criss-cross of emotions. The father's initial grief over his young son's avarice is turned to relief at his return. The son's grief over his loss of fortune, family, and friends is turned to delirious joy at the sight of his father.

We understand the eldest son's bewilderment over his father's generosity. For the older son, virtue seems not to be its own reward. For all his honorable toil and loyalty, there seems to be no celebration. The father, however, is prodigal in his forgiveness and mercy. He expects the same generosity from his older son. He wants all to rejoice when the lost one is found.

This is a Sunday for rejoicing. It's time to pause, consider, and encourage one another. We are the prodigal children heading home. We are the elder siblings waiting with the eager Father, who scans the horizon. In Christ Jesus we are reconciled to the Father and one another. In his death and resurrection we have passed over. We are a new creation. In this we rejoice.

Dear Parishioners and friends,

During the season of Lent, Catholics traditionally devote special efforts to deepen their relationship with the Lord in three areas: Prayer, Fasting, and Almsgiving.

Throughout Lent, as we remember the great sacrifice Christ made, Christian stewards examine their own sacrificial giving. We do this to emulate Christ, to gain spiritual maturity, and share with others. Our Lenten efforts are not like short-term New Year's resolutions, designed as a forty-day weight-loss plan or a self-help project. Instead, they embody the idea of sacrifice in the pursuit of holiness.

Here are a few ideas to inspire your own thoughts and make Lenten sacrifices that might truly be life changing. (Hint: a Lenten journal may help in noticing and recording your growth.)

PRAYER

- Participate in an extra community prayer activity weekly: perhaps a daily Mass, the Stations of the Cross, or a Taizé prayer session.
- Dedicate yourself to an extra 10-15 minutes of daily Scripture reading.
- Find an online prayer source (www.sacredspace.ie is a good example) where you can spend 10-15 minutes of prayer at your computer during each busy day. If you have not done it yet, download our parish app (text APP to 88202 to download our parish app). Check out the LENT button on our parish app. The daily reflections along with the Mass readings in the READINGS button are a great way of daily growing in your faith through this holy season.

FASTING

- Fast from negative thoughts of others. Be conscious of mean or petty mental messages.
- Perhaps fasting from all screen time would prove impractical. But set yourself a limit. Sacrifice some aspect of Internet browsing, television watching, or texting, and do something constructive with the time saved.
- Refraining from food or drink is often a fasting choice. Make sure you're doing it for the right sacrificial reasons and perhaps donate the money saved to a charity.
- Fast from the need to always be right. Spend more time listening to or reading the opinions and ideas of those with whom you may not think you agree.

ALMSGIVING

- A wise man was asked, "How much should I give?" His reply: "More." Stretch your charitable giving this Lent. Sacrifice a need or want to give more money to the offertory collection at Mass.
- Set aside a few hours of Lent to be with the poor, to accompany them on their journey. Serve at a food kitchen or help out at a food bank. Promise yourself you will enter your "discomfort" level sometime this Lent.
- Check out your closet. Resolve not to add to it during Lent, but instead find things to give to a charity. A real challenge: don't just give away the clothes of which you've tired. Part with something you still love!

ARM THE PHOTON TORPEDOES

The book of Joshua tells of the Israelites coming into the Promised Land, where they no longer needed to be fed with manna as in the desert. They had been wandering much longer than expected because of their unfaithfulness. But now they are forgiven, and so celebrate the Passover with food from the land. Then we hear the Gospel parable about another feast. This one is also a celebration of forgiveness, for the prodigal son has returned to his father, and the father's forgiveness shows us how willing God is to forgive us. That's where we end the parable, right?

March 06, 2016

Wrong. The parable continues with the older son's complaint about a feast for his brother. That son cannot forgive his brother and is angry at the father for welcoming the prodigal back. This is where we come in. Most of us have no trouble asking God's forgiveness. But we may have trouble forgiving others. We are so used to thinking in terms of justice that we are not satisfied with forgiveness. When I have been hurt, I feel like hitting back.

So we have to ask ourselves whose idea of justice we live by. Is it the human expectation of an eye for an eye? Or is it God's justice, which is mercy and forgiveness? When someone cuts you off in traffic, do you feel like firing the photon torpedoes, or offering forgiveness? The Golden Rule could be "Forgive others as you would be forgiven." Jesus gave his life for the sins of the world. Do we have the right to ask for more?

STEWARDSHIP

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

Fourth Sunday of Lent, Weekend of March 5/6, 2016

Today we hear one of the most beloved stories in the Gospel of Luke, Jesus' parable of the Prodigal Son. Reconciliation is a prominent theme. Seeing the younger son returning to him, the son who left the family and squandered his inheritance, the compassionate father runs to embrace him. Jesus offers us a vision of a loving God who is merciful and forgiving, welcoming us back when we remorsefully return to him. When was a time that I left God's presence through my own sinfulness? Did I humbly and sorrowfully repent of my actions? How am I using this time of Lent to humbly atone for my sins? Will I eagerly celebrate the sacrament of reconciliation in the next few weeks to experience God's loving embrace and forgiveness?

A STEWARDSHIP PRAYER For March

Lord Jesus Christ,
it is a great grace to be with You during this Lenten season, but how often have we spent our days neglecting the spiritual fruits we are offered? How often do we go without paying any attention to the need for penance, fasting, almsgiving or prayer in our lives? And if we miss these Lenten opportunities, how can we truly celebrate Easter? How can we rejoice in Your resurrection if we do not in some way participate in Your death? Help us become better stewards of this gift of the Lenten season. Teach us how to die to our own failings, weaknesses and neglect. Show us how to turn from our resentments, anger and impatience. Liberate us from our conceit, self-centeredness and greed. Break through the barriers we have erected around ourselves and open our hearts to Your mercy, compassion and forgiveness. May we use each day as an opportunity to grow closer to You, unite with You in both Your death and resurrection, and thus become reflections of Your love. Amen.

Jubilee Year of Mercy

On Laetare Sunday, we rejoice as Luke's Jesus proclaims that God is boundlessly merciful. The parable's prodigal son returns home, not authentically repentant but desperate, having squandered on prostitutes (or so his older brother claims) the inheritance wrongly demanded while his father still lived. This selfish son is only spared ritual "shaming" when the father "shames" himself, running to embrace him, interrupting his prepared "act of contrition." By doing so he challenges confessors, and all of us, to be signs, says Pope Francis, "of the primacy of mercy always, everywhere, and in every situation, no matter what." Avoid the harshness of the elder son, Francis warns, "who stands outside, incapable of rejoicing," his judgment "severe, unjust, and meaningless in light of the father's boundless mercy" (Misericordiae Vultus, 17). If John's Gospel is proclaimed, the "religiously observant" people there likewise serve to warn against harshly judging others, for the physical blindness of the man they expel from the synagogue is healed, while their own blindness of heart remains.

Reflecciones del Evangelio

UN DOMINGO PARA ALEGRARSE

Pocas parábolas del Evangelio son tan queridas por el pueblo cristiano como la del hijo pródigo. Nos podemos identificar con todos sus personajes, y con las emociones que se entrecruzan entre ellos. El dolor del padre por la avaricia y desconsideración de su hijo se convierte en alegría al verlo regresar. El dolor del hijo por haber perdido todo lo que tenía –dinero, familia, amigos– se convierte en alegría delirante al ver como su padre lo recibe.

Pero también comprendemos el desconcierto del hijo mayor ante la generosidad de su padre. Para el hijo mayor, la virtud no es su propia recompensa. Ha trabajado duro, y ha sido un hijo leal, pero eso no se celebra con fiestas ni banquetes. Pero su padre es un padre pródigo, y prodiga su perdón y su misericordia. Y espera que su hijo mayor tenga esa misma generosidad. Quiere que todos se regocijen porque el que estaba perdido ha sido hallado.

Este es un domingo para alegrarse. Es día de hacer una pausa, y de considerarnos y alentarnos unos a otros. Porque todos somos hijos pródigos, en el camino de regreso al hogar de nuestro padre. Y debemos también ser hermanos mayores, pero hermanos mayores que esperan junto con el padre ansioso, mientras vislumbra el horizonte. En Cristo Jesús nos vemos reconciliados, con Dios Padre, y con nuestros hermanos. En su Muerte y Resurrección hemos pasado de la muerte a la vida. Somos una nueva creación. Y esto nos llena de alegría.

Let us pray for our beloved dead and the poor souls in purgatory.

Requiescat In Pace! May they rest in peace!

COURTESY ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Renewing Life Ministries needs volunteer drivers to give seniors a ride to doctor appointments, run errands to the market or attend a social function. Use your own vehicle to drive seniors in your own neighborhood and help improve their quality of life. To become a volunteer driver please contact Tony San Nicolas at 619-517-3239 or Sabrina San Nicolas 619-849-9922. Learn more about this program at www.renewinglife4sd.com.
- Help Father Joe's Villages improve their client's vision. Please donate eyeglasses (new or gently used), prescription or magnifier, adult or child. A collection box is located at the parish office.

Have you recently moved?

If so, please call our office as soon as possible so that we may update our records. We want to be able to get important information to all parishioners in a timely manner. You may also fill out the slip below and place it in the collection basket or drop it off at the office.

YEAR OF MERCY PRAYER

Lord Jesus Christ, you have taught us to be merciful like the heavenly Father, and have told us that whoever sees you sees Him. Show us your face and we will be saved. Your loving gaze freed Zacchaeus and Matthew from being enslaved by money; the adulteress and Magdalene from seeking happiness only in created things; made Peter weep after his betrayal, and assured Paradise to the repentant thief. Let us hear, as if addressed to each one of us, the words that you spoke to the Samaritan woman: "If you knew the gift of God!" You are the visible face of the invisible Father, of the God who manifests his power above all by forgiveness and mercy: let the Church be your visible face in the world, its Lord risen and glorified. You willed that your ministers would also be clothed in weakness in order that they may feel compassion for those in ignorance and error: let everyone who approaches them feel sought after, loved, and forgiven by God. Send your Spirit and consecrate every one of us with its anointing, so that the Jubilee of Mercy may be a year of grace from the Lord, and your Church, with renewed enthusiasm, may bring good news to the poor, proclaim liberty to captives and the oppressed, and restore sight to the blind. We ask this through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Mercy, you who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever. Amen.

EXTRAORDINARY JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY.

Join a Pilgrimage on June 13-27, 2016 to the Holy Doors of the Four Major Basilicas in Rome and the Shrines of Mercy in Italy (Padre Pio, Assisi), France (Our Lady of Lourdes), Spain, and Portugal (Fatima). Private Mass will be celebrated at the Chapel of Saint Pope John Paul II in St. Peter's Basilica in the Vatican. Renewal of wedding vows for pilgrim couples. Only six (6) Seats Remaining. Call 619-470-1977 or 619-261-2544 before March 12, 2016.

The National Pilgrim Virgin Statue of Our Lady of Fatima visited St. Michael Church on February 23, 2016.

Training for New Ministers of the Word and Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist has been scheduled for March 12, 2016. The Ministry of the Word requires an understanding of the scriptures, and skill in public reading. Readers must be fully initiated, practicing Catholics whose lives witness to the word which they proclaim. If you have a desire to join this ministry and can fulfill all of the requirements.

Please contact Barbara Patton for an interview. You can call the parish office and leave a message or you can contact her at bpreads@cox.net. You must be interviewed before coming to the training. The last day for interviews will be Friday, March 11th.

Eucharistic Minister must be fully initiated, practicing Catholics, married in the Catholic Church, and registered parishioner. Please call the parish office at 619-470-1977 or Elsa Marcelino at 619-475-4322 for interview.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and the snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host - by the Divine Power of God - cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who roam throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
