Today's Gospel Reflection

1st Reading: Acts 5:27-32, 40b-41 * Psalm: Ps 30:2, 4-6, 11-13 *
 2nd Reading: Rv 5:11-14 * Gospel: Jn 21:1-19 [1-14]

REDEMPTION

Do you remember Peter on the night Jesus was arrested? He claimed he had never heard of Jesus. Today we are called to join Peter in testifying to the name of Jesus as he does in the first reading, and in proclaiming our love for him as Peter does in the Gospel passage. The powerful imagery of John's vision in the second reading from the book of Revelation shows us the company we keep when we have faith in the name of Jesus. We join all living creatures, "countless in number" from "heaven, earth, in the sea; everything in the universe" (Revelation 5:11,13). The dignity and majesty described in each readings are in stark contrast to the dark and pitiful image of Peter and the other apostles at the time of Jesus' arrest, trial, and crucifixion. What a relief that we can all be redeemed so completely!

Dear Parishioners and friends,

Our 2016 Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA), which was launched on February 21st is now in full swing. The first in-pew collections amounted to $2,780.05. After six weeks, as of March 27th, we received pledges amounting to $21,078 of which $17,852 has already been paid. Our goal is to raise $70,000. The total amount pledged is 30.11% of our goal. Out of the 3,266 registered parishioners, 225 have participated or submitted their pledges. We also noted that we have non-registered friends who participated in our Annual Catholic Appeals.

It is our hope that more registered parishioners will be able to participate in this year's Annual Catholic Appeal. Through our participation in the ACA, we help our Diocese serve the less privileged.

We take this opportunity to acknowledge our top donors from last year:

Stanley Alegre, John Avery, Efren Ayran, Alberto Balaquer, Daniel Barona, Ralph Benke, Ernie Cabral, Benito Cagayat, Rogelio Concepcion, Rodelio Dantes, Antonio Espiritu, Alfredo Flores, Emmanuel Francisco, Jose Gonzales, Mariano Guarin, Cesar Magno, Ramon Martinez, Avelino Medina, Leonido Mendoza, Nancy Potts, Robert Ramsey, Frank Salinas, Peter Showalter, Reynaldo Tugade, Corazon Villanueva, Nora Villarosa, and Josephine Vitug.

To those who have submitted their pledges, our anonymous donors, and all who gave at the in-pew collections, thank you for your loving response.

“As we “Celebrate the Year of Mercy” we encounter God’s love when we express mercy and compassion, through stewardship, service, and sacrifice. Through your gift, we impact thousands of lives for Christ. Thank you for your support as we participate in living the Church’s mission to be a witness of compassion and mercy to those in need.”

The mission of the Academy is to form young disciples to be spiritually, intellectually, and socially prepared to integrate gospel values for living a Catholic, Christian life in a secular world. We are committed to providing a Christian environment where students experience God through exploration of their lives and the wonders of His creation. The Academy envisions itself as a partner with parents; sharing the educational ministry of the Church.

Blessings from St. Michael Academy to the St. Michael Parish Community!

During the last week of March, the Diocese of San Diego hosted the NCEA (National Catholic Educational Association) Convention. St. Michael Academy's faculty volunteered their time and talent assisting visitors to our fair city. Afterwards, they were able to select from hundreds of professional development sessions to attend. All participants were blessed to have Bishop McElroy celebrate Mass on the first day and visiting bishops celebrate Mass on the following two days. It was amazing to be able to reaffirm our commitment to Catholic education.

Blessing Our Future: If you have not yet pledged $1 a day for Catholic education, please take the time to do so and help our parish families realize the gift of a lifetime; a Catholic education at St. Michael Academy! Any donation, large or small, is greatly appreciated: www.fiatcatholicschools.com.

Enrollment/registration is an ongoing process at St. Michael Academy. We are a Kindergarten through 8th Grade school. Call the office and schedule a tour of the Academy. Give us an opportunity to show you how the cost of your child's Catholic education can fit into your budget. Call 619 470-4880, or e-mail Mrs. Lewis at rlewis@stmichaelsandiego.org. Fr. Manny offers a $1000 discount to new families enrolling in the Academy.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

From the earliest centuries, we know that some Christian women desired to vow themselves to a celibate life to pray and serve. Some, but by no means everyone, wanted a kind of monastic life. Others wanted to stay in the family home. By the fourth century, the church was celebrating the "Consecration of Virgins," a rite performed by the bishop, and involving a "veiling" of the woman. It was looked upon as a form of marriage with Christ, partly because in the culture of the day a woman's status in society was linked to a man. The prayers and ritual for the consecration of virgins were exactly the same as the prayers and ritual for the consecration of a bride on her wedding day. The public character of the rite gave the bishop the opportunity to commend the virgin to the faithful, and to threaten with punishment anyone who tried to turn her from her commitment. Eventually, the rite fell into disuse for women living in the world, and was reserved for nuns. The Second Vatican Council directed that it be revived and restored, and in nearly every diocese, single women have embraced this form of consecrated life.

STEWARDSHIP

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

Third Sunday of Easter Weekend of April 9/10, 2016

In today's Gospel reading Jesus is quite emphatic: "My sheep hear my voice..." Those who exercise good stewardship of their prayer lives realizes that hearing or listening is fundamental to prayer. Prayer is a personal encounter with the Lord and required dialogue. Some people never learn the art of listening. When we enter into a dialogue with someone we love we speak and we listen. Otherwise it cannot be a dialogue. This week let's think about how we pray. Do we do all the talking and then get up and do something else? Or do we sit quietly, waiting for Gods voice to enter our hearts?

A STEWARDSHIP PRAYER For April

Dear Lord, risen Lord, merciful Lord!
The Easter season is filled with Your presence,
And we come to You in gratitude for the deep and abiding Joy You offer us through the promise of Your resurrection.
Help us hear Your call as did Mary Magdalene.
Teach us as You did the disciples at Emmaus.
Dispel our doubts as You did for Thomas.
and reveal Yourself to us as You did to Your friends from the shore of Lake Tiberius.
Make us good stewards of this Easter season.
Open our hearts and minds in a special way to the great mystery of Your active presence in our lives, and give us the courage to help others
discover Your presence in their lives.
For You are the light of the world.
To You, Christ Jesus, be praise and glory!
Amen!

Jubilee Year of Mercy

April 10, 2016

Third Sunday of Easter

How appropriate today's Gospel for this Jubilee Year of Mercy, both because of the "breakfast" Jesus provides ("a charcoal fire with fish on it and bread") and the number of fish in Peter's net ("one hundred fifty-three") (John 21:11-12). Of the fish, Saint Augustine suggests that the roasted fish is the suffering Christ. Saint Gregory the Great adds that Christ lowered himself to swim in the "water" of our humanity; to be caught in the "net" of our death; to be "roasted" in his Passion on the fire of suffering. Saint Jerome claims that "one hundred fifty-three" represents the full number of known species of fish, signifying that the Church's "net" has room for all our widely diverse humanity, securing our unity-in-diversity in the hands of Peter and his successors. Having received God's mercy as "the beating heart of the Gospel," may the Church—we—"pattern [our] behavior after the Son of God who went out to everyone without exception" (Misericordiae Vultus, 12).

Reflecciones del Evangelio

REDIMIDOS

¿Recuerdas a Pedro la noche que arrestaron a Jesús? Insistía en que nunca había oído de Jesús. Hoy estamos llamados a unirnos a Pedro en dar testimonio del nombre de Jesús como lo hace en la primera lectura, y a proclamar nuestro amor a él tal como lo hace Pedro en el pasaje del Evangelio. La poderosa imagen de la visión de san Juan en la segunda lectura del libro del Apocalipsis nos enseña la comunidad a la que pertenecemos cuando tenemos fe en el nombre de Jesús. Nos unimos a todos los seres vivos "miles y millones" en "el cielo, sobre la tierra, debajo de ella y en el mar, y todo lo que hay en ellos" (Apocalipsis 5:11, 13). La majestad y dignidad expresadas en cada lectura están en profundo contraste con la oscura y miserable imagen de Pedro y los otros apóstoles en los momentos en que Jesús era arrestado, juzgado y crucificado. ¡Qué alivio que todos podemos ser tan totalmente redimidos!

“I think we too are the people who, on the one hand, want to listen to Jesus, but on the other hand, at times, like to find a stick to beat others with, to condemn others. And Jesus has this message for us: mercy ... THIS IS THE MOST POWERFUL MESSAGE: MERCY!” - Pope Francis

YEAR OF MERCY PRAYER

Lord Jesus Christ, you have taught us to be merciful like the heavenly Father, and have told us that whoever sees you sees Him. Show us your face and we will be saved. Your loving gaze freed Zacchaeus and Matthew from being enslaved by money; the adulteress and Magdalene from seeking happiness only in created things; made Peter weep after his betrayal, and assured Paradise to the repentant thief. Let us hear, as if addressed to each one of us, the words that you spoke to the Samaritan woman: “If you knew the gift of God!” You are the visible face of the invisible Father, of the God who manifests his power above all by forgiveness and mercy: let the Church be your visible face in the world, its Lord risen and glorified. You willed that your ministers would also be clothed in weakness in order that they may feel compassion for those in ignorance and error: let everyone who approaches them feel sought after, loved, and forgiven by God. Send your Spirit and consecrate every one of us with its anointing, so that the Jubilee of Mercy may be a year of grace from the Lord, and your Church, with renewed enthusiasm, may bring good news to the poor, proclaim liberty to captives and the oppressed, and restore sight to the blind. We ask this through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Mercy, you who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever. Amen.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY—Feast Mass and Procession of the Holy Image.

BE REMEMBERED FOREVER and included in our Mass intentions. Have the names of your beloved departed inscribed on a brick in our Memorial Garden Walls. The names on the memorial walls will forever become part of the Garden. Call the parish office at 619-470-1977. Also ask about the PERPETUAL MEMORIAL WALLS (for the living and deceased) inside the church in the vestibule.

Names on these walls are included in our Mass intentions every First Friday of the month.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and the snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host
- by the Divine Power of God - cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who roam throughout the world
seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
