Today's Gospel Reflection

First Reading: Gn 14:18-20 * Psalm - Ps 110:1-4 *
 Second Reading: 1 Cor 11:23-26 * Gospel: Lk 9:11b-17

FED BY THE LORD

Jesus' words "This is my body" and "This cup is the new covenant in my blood" were only part of his table blessing. Jesus twice said: "Do this in remembrance of me" (1 Corinthians 11:24, 25).

This is the good news of today's solemnity. Like the five thousand hungry souls, we are fed by our Lord. This is not food that satisfies for only a short time, until the next meal. It is food that lasts and changes us. It is food for sharing in much the same way as Melchizedek did when he brought bread and wine to the returning Abraham.

As children of God's reign, we are blessed to be able to receive and share God's gift. And we do so in the way most appropriate to our state in life—as parents, children, husbands, wives, or religious.

PASTORS' MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners and friends,

Today we celebrate the FEAST OF FAITH—the CORPUS CHRISTI!

“In the thirteenth century, a Belgian nun by the name of Juliana had a vision: she saw the full moon silvery and radiant except for one dark spot. The meaning of the vision was revealed to her: the moon was the Church’s liturgical year, the dark spot a missing feast in honor of the Blessed Sacrament. Today’s feast of Corpus Christi—the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ—grew from Juliana’s vision.

On this feast, many parishes observe the traditional Corpus Christi procession, giving honor to the Eucharist by carrying this greatest treasure out of the safety of our churches and into our streets. At the end of every Mass we are not just let out, we are sent forth, strengthened by the Eucharist, to be the Body of Christ in the world. The Corpus Christi procession is the dismissal writ large! We take Jesus with us, not only in our hearts, but carried in our midst and exposed in a monstrance. It is a public profession of faith and a blessing of the world. Jesus walks with us on these streets that we walk day after day, among those who know him but yearn to know him better, and among those who do not know him.”

The Eucharist is a mystery to be believed, to be celebrated—and to be lived.

The mission of the Academy is to form young disciples to be spiritually, intellectually, and socially prepared to integrate gospel values for living a Catholic, Christian life in a secular world. We are committed to providing a Christian environment where students experience God through exploration of their lives and the wonders of His creation. The Academy envisions itself as a partner with parents; sharing the educational ministry of the Church.

Blessings from St. Michael Academy to the St. Michael Parish Community!

Memorial Day is set aside to honor our military men and women who have made the ultimate sacrifice for our country. St. Michael Academy joins St. Michael Parish in praying for the souls of our beloved dead who gave their lives for our freedom. May their souls, and the souls of all our faithful departed, rest in the peace of Christ.

Remember - our fallen heroes. They are the reason that we are free.

Blessing Our Future: If you have not yet pledged $1 a day for Catholic education, please take the time to do so and help our parish families realize the gift of a lifetime; a Catholic education at St. Michael Academy! Any donation, large or small, is greatly appreciated: www.fiatcatholicschools.com.

Enrollment/registration is an ongoing process at St. Michael Academy. We are a Kindergarten through 8th Grade school. Call the office and schedule a tour of the Academy. Give us an opportunity to show you how the cost of your child's Catholic education can fit into your budget. Call (619) 470-4880, or e-mail Mrs. Lewis at rlewis@stmichaelsandiego.org. Fr. Manny offers a $1000 discount to new families enrolling in the Academy.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Once the early Christians realized that Christ's coming in glory was delayed, there was a need to provide for the governance and everyday needs of the church. The various "orders" within the church carried forward the apostles' ministry, but also allowed for a measure of creativity. The sacrament we call "holy orders" evolved somewhat slowly. At first, it made sense for Christians to use the forms they knew, adapting them to new situations. Synagogues, for example, were administered by a board of "elders," translated into Greek as presbyteros. We know from the Acts of the Apostles that a system of presbyters was a normal feature of church life from earliest days. They stood in relationship to another order, that of "overseers," translated into Greek as episkopos, giving us the English "bishops." The bishop was the shepherd, the faithful tender of the flock, one who offered the Eucharist, forgave sins, and maintained the bond of charity. Just as the deacons were the chief advisers for the charitable life of the church, so were the presbyters meant to advise the bishop on the spiritual life of the faithful. They were trusted advisers at first, not pastors or priests as we understand those terms today.

STEWARDSHIP

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ Weekend of May 28/29, 2016

From the rich Eucharistic themes to be drawn from today's second reading, one stewardship theme stands out: The Eucharist is Christ's gift to us. Good stewards are grateful for this gift and realize that no matter their station in life, they are welcome to come to the table and receive the body and blood of Christ. If Jesus could break bread with his betrayer, Judas, his denier, Peter, and the other ten who deserted him, then he will welcome us. Do we truly appreciate what a tremendous gift it is to approach the Lord's table? Do we accept the transforming power of the gift of Christ's body and blood?

- International Catholic Stewardship Council, Parish Enews

Jubilee Year of Mercy

Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi)

In this Jubilee Year of Mercy, the Lectionary's Year of Luke presents a Gospel in which Jesus, who has welcomed, taught, healed, and shown God's mercy to the multitude, refuses the Twelve's demand to dismiss the crowd before him. Instead, he says, "Give them some food yourselves" (Luke 9:13). In Jesus' hands, what little the Twelve has feeds five thousand ("men," and probably as many women and children), leaving twelve baskets so the Twelve can continue Jesus' ministry of mercy. Pope Francis has asked how we celebrate and live the Eucharist. Do we keep it to ourselves? Or do we "commune" not only with Jesus but with the multitude whom Jesus has given us to cherish? Entrusted to Jesus and shared with others, our limited resources can go a long way. Recognizing Jesus in the Eucharist demands that we recognize Jesus also in the hungry crowd. Adoring Jesus present in the Eucharist requires that we serve Jesus present in our neighbor.

A STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

For May

Gracious and Loving God,
When Your Spirit descended upon the apostles at Pentecost, they spoke the languages of those who came to hear their testimony. They proclaimed a new covenant in Christ Jesus, sanctified by His blood, bound by the Holy Spirit, and sealed in the waters of baptism. We give You thanks and praise for releasing Your Spirit upon us; and in our time pray that it will break through the many barriers that divide nations and people. Let Your Spirit open our eyes as a communion of faith to Your ongoing presence among us, so we can recognize You when we serve one another. Let Your Spirit open our minds so that we may gain the wisdom to work together for reconciliation and peace, and unite our talents to build a better world. And let Your Spirit open our hearts so that together we can live more fully in Christ, shine His light of mercy and love and prepare for the day of His glorious return. We pray this through Your son, Jesus Christ who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.

ORACIÓN DE CORRESPONSABILIDAD para el Mes de Mayo

Dios Amoroso y Generoso,
Cuando tu Espíritu descendió sobre los apóstoles en Pentecostés, ellos hablaron las lenguas de quienes acudían a escuchar su testimonio. Ellos proclamaron una nueva alianza en Cristo Jesús, santificada por su sangre, afirmada por el Espíritu Santo, y sellada en las aguas del bautismo. Te alabamos y te damos gracias por enviar tu Espíritu sobre nosotros; y en nuestro tiempo, oramos para que abra el camino entre las numerosas barreras que dividen a las naciones y a las personas. Permite que tu Espíritu abra nuestros ojos como una comunión de fe a tu continua presencia entre nosotros, para que podamos reconocerte cuando servimos unos a otros. Permite que tu Espíritu abra nuestras mentes para que lleguemos a tener la sabiduría de trabajar juntos por la reconciliación y la paz, y unir nuestros talentos para construir un mundo mejor. Y permite que tu Espíritu abra nuestros corazones para que juntos podamos vivir más plenamente en Cristo, irradiar su luz de misericordia y amor y prepararnos para el día de su glorioso regreso. Nosotros te lo pedimos a través de tu hijo, Jesucristo quien vive y reina contigo y con el Espíritu Santo, un solo Dios por los siglos de los siglos. Amén

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY. As we celebrate the solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, it remained a challenge to fully comprehend the meaning and reality of the "Triune God", in spite of our profession of faith in "one God". "The divine persons are relative to one another. In the relational names of the persons the Father is related to the Son, the Son to the Father, and the Holy Spirit to both. While they are called three persons in view of their relationships, we believe in one nature or substance." (Catechism of the Catholic Church, No. 255)

“I think we too are the people who, on the one hand, want to listen to Jesus, but on the other hand, at times, like to find a stick to beat others with, to condemn others. And Jesus has this message for us: MERCY”

YEAR OF MERCY PRAYER

Lord Jesus Christ, you have taught us to be merciful like the heavenly Father, and have told us that whoever sees you sees Him. Show us your face and we will be saved. Your loving gaze freed Zacchaeus and Matthew from being enslaved by money; the adulteress and Magdalene from seeking happiness only in created things; made

Peter weep after his betrayal, and assured Paradise to the repentant thief. Let us hear, as if addressed to each one of us, the words that you spoke to the Samaritan woman: “If you knew the gift of God!” You are the visible face of the invisible Father, of the God who manifests his power above all by forgiveness and mercy: let the Church be your visible face in the world, its Lord risen and glorified. You willed that your ministers would also be clothed in weakness in order that they may feel compassion for those in ignorance and error: let everyone who approaches them feel sought after, loved, and forgiven by God. Send your Spirit and consecrate every one of us with its anointing, so that the Jubilee of Mercy may be a year of grace from the Lord, and your Church, with renewed enthusiasm, may bring good news to the poor, proclaim liberty to captives and the oppressed, and restore sight to the blind. We ask this through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Mercy, you who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever. Amen.

FEAST OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS.

On June 3, 2016 (Friday), we will celebrate the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. There will be a procession before Mass. Please, assemble in the church at 6:30 p.m. There will be no Holy Hour after the Mass. Everyone is invited to a fellowship in the Collier Center after Mass.

The BLESSED SACRAMENT will be exposed for All-Night Adoration at 10:00 p.m. The Benediction will be at 7:50 a.m. on the next day, JUNE 4, 2016 (Saturday), the Solemnity of the Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

O Sacred Heart of Jesus and Immaculate Heart of Mary, help me to accept the Gospel in my heart and to live it in faith, hope and love, that Jesus Christ will, through His cross and resurrection, become the way, the truth and the life for me. May I be nourished on heavenly bread and live out the sacrifice of the Eucharist so that I will overcome every evil and always choose life. Amen.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and the snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host - by the Divine Power of God - cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who roam throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
