Today's Gospel Reflection

First Reading: 1 Kgs 17:17-24 * Psalm: Ps 30:2, 4-6, 11-13 *
 Second Reading: Gal 1:11-19 * Gospel: Lk 7:11-17

HOPE AND LIFE

Today's readings tell the story of two widows. The first reading relates the plight of the widow with whom the prophet Elijah stayed; the Gospel tells about the widow of Nain. In each story, the widow's only son had died. For people who lived in those cultures, the son was the only support of a widow, and the carrying on of the family name by the son was equal to immortality. A widow whose only son has died could lose all hope.

Elijah and Jesus are the restorers of hope; they bring the sons back to life. Saint Paul was metaphorically raised from the dead when he experienced the conversion and call from God that he describes in today's second reading.

What are Christians called to do today? We may not be able to raise the dead, but perhaps we can rekindle hope for a single parent. We may not be able to convert a persecutor like Paul, but if we speak the gospel openly and gently with our lives, we might touch a life with the Good News.

GOD'S PRESENCE

Realize above all that you are in God's presence . . . empty yourself completely and sit waiting, content with the grace of God, like a chick who tastes nothing and eats nothing but what its mother gives it.

—St. Romuald

You may have a candle lit for 7 days, or 42 days. Your intentions will be posted on the wall and included in the Mass. Call the parish office for details. PASTORS' MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners and friends,

On June 19, 2016 we will celebrate Father's Day. Let us show our love and care for our father. The best gift we can give our father is to pray and offer Mass for him.

From June 19 to 27, we will have Novena of Masses offered for fathers. Remember your father, living or deceased, or the person who has been like a father to you. Include him in our Novena of Masses. You may find envelopes in the pews, or get one from the parish office.

*****

If you receive a call from people asking you to have the image of the Divine Mercy enthroned in your house, make sure that they are the people authorized by St. Michael Church. The names of those who are commissioned to bring the image of the Divine Mercy into your homes are listed in our bulletin, or you may verify by calling the parish office.

After the enthronement, you will be given a "Certificate of Enthronement" signed by the Pastor and Co-Pastor, and marked with the official seal of St. Michael Catholic Church.

We received several reports of vehicles having dented from our parking lot when the driver return to the car after the Mass or church services. Please, be careful when driving in or out of our parking lot. If you accidentally bumped into someone else's car, be kind to inform of the accident. Leave a note with your contact information.

Pope Francis said, "Let us remember the Golden Rule: "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you". Yes, do not do unto others what you do not want others do unto you. This is also one of the teachings of our Lord (Matthew 7:12).

Fr. Manny Ediza & Fr. Bernard Rañoa

P.S. When you are out of town, visit us at www.stmichaelsandiego.org and keep posted with our parish news and events.

Remember St. Michael Catholic Church San Diego in your will.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Unless Professor Einstein's theory of relativity can be translated into any useful kind of time-travel, most of our clues about life in the early church will have to come from ancient letters and ancient prayer texts. A prayer text from a dusty library may yield, for example, an understanding of what "presbyters" actually did. We have such a prayer from the early third century from the hand of Hippolytus of Rome. While our modern prayers derive a great deal from his, some of the practices of the ancient church have fallen away. In his day, bishops were chosen by the people, and the other bishops merely consented. Presbyters, by contrast, seem to have been chosen by the bishops. This makes sense, since it allowed the bishops to hand-pick their most trusted advisers.

It seems that bishops were at first reluctant to share their presiding at the Eucharist with presbyters. In fact, by the time of the fourth-century church's growth spurt in Rome, the bishop sent deacons out with fragments of the host from his Eucharist to drop into the chalices of the presbyters at the outlying eucharistic celebrations. We still have a vestige of this fermentum in the Mass today, a reminder of the early bishops' desire to give a powerful sign of the unity of all celebrations of the Eucharist with their ministry, and a clue to their reluctance to delegate a sacramental ministry to the presbyters.

STEWARDSHIP

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Weekend of June 4/5, 2016

Saint Paul begins today's second reading by stating that he was "called" to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ. As baptized Catholics who have an opportunity to share in Christ's life through the Eucharist regularly, we too are called to proclaim the teachings of Christ. We are stewards of Christ's Gospel. But how are we responding to that call? Do we listen for the guidance of the Holy Spirit? Do we evade, dodge or ignore the Lord's call? Do we attempt to proclaim the Gospel in a spirit of compassion and love? Reflect on how you exercise stewardship over the Gospel.

- International Catholic Stewardship Council, Parish Enews

Jubilee Year of Mercy June 5, 2016

Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Half the liturgical year 2016 is completed after six months of extraordinary celebrations. The Incarnation mystery: Jesus' advent, nativity, epiphany. The Paschal mystery: Jesus' passion, death, resurrection, Pentecost's Holy Spirit. The solemnities of Holy Trinity and Jesus' Body and Blood. Today the Church resumes Sundays in Ordinary Time, but with a Gospel of extraordinary mercy: Jesus raises a dead man to life. Yet the one who benefits most from his extraordinary mercy is not the dead son but his widowed mother. With her husband and only son deceased, this woman's material support, in that patriarchal society, had vanished. So had her emotional support, leaving her helpless, abandoned, on society's "peripheries." One of Pope Francis' hopes in calling this Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy is to transform us into more extraordinary Christians, by making our caring outreach to just such vulnerable people, and our practical self-sacrificing love for them, our ordinary, daily, Christian way of life!

A STEWARDSHIP PRAYER For JUNE

Lord Jesus Christ,

You came to bring peace and offer reconciliation. You sent your Spirit to heal the separation between people, and to reveal how it is possible for women and men to overcome their differences and celebrate their unity through your body and blood. You revealed your Father as the Father of all people; a Father who cares for every single individual and embraces them with love and mercy. It is that love and mercy, made manifest by your cross, that shines your light on us all, creates new life, offers a new way of living, and brings a Gospel message that is a sign of hope. Give us the courage to live your Gospel fully even when it brings risk, to share your word vibrantly even if it leads to scorn, and to respond to others generously even when we feel like holding back. Show us the way to live as good stewards of your presence among us, and in doing so, may we shine your light on a darkened world. Amen.

ORACIÓN DE CORRESPONSABILIDAD para el Mes de JUNIO

Señor nuestro, Jesucristo,

Tú vienes a traer paz y a ofrecer reconciliación. Tú enviaste tu Espíritu para sanar la desunión entre la gente, y revelar cómo es posible para las mujeres y los hombres vencer sus diferencias y celebrar su unidad a través de tu cuerpo y de tu sangre. Tú revelaste a tu Padre como el Padre de toda la gente; un Padre que cuida de cada una de las personas y les abraza con amor y misericordia. Es ese amor y misericordia, manifestado a través de la cruz, que irradia tu luz sobre nosotros, crea nueva vida, ofrece una nueva manera de vivir, y trae un mensaje del Evangelio que es un signo de esperanza. Danos el valor para vivir tu Evangelio plenamente aunque ello implique riesgo, para compartir tu palabra vibrantemente aunque ello conduzca al desdén, y para responder a otros generosamente aunque sintamos el deseo de contenernos. Muéstranos el camino para vivir como buenos corresponsables de tu presencia entre nosotros, y al hacer esto, que irradiemos tu luz sobre un mundo oscurecido. Amén

Congratulations to all the graduates!

*"I think we too are the people who, on the one hand, want to listen to Jesus, but on the other hand, at times, like to find a stick to beat others with, to condemn others. And Jesus has this message for us: MERCY .... THIS IS THE MOST POWERFUL MESSAGE: MERCY!"

YEAR OF MERCY PRAYER

Lord Jesus Christ, you have taught us to be merciful like the heavenly Father, and have told us that whoever sees you sees Him. Show us your face and we will be saved. Your loving gaze freed Zacchaeus and Matthew from being enslaved by money; the adulteress and Magdalene from seeking happiness only in created things; made Peter weep after his betrayal, and assured Paradise to the repentant thief. Let us hear, as if addressed to each one of us, the words that you spoke to the Samaritan woman: "If you knew the gift of God!" You are the visible face of the invisible Father, of the God who manifests his power above all by forgiveness and mercy: let the Church be your visible face in the world, its Lord risen and glorified. You willed that your ministers would also be clothed in weakness in order that they may feel compassion for those in ignorance and error: let everyone who approaches them feel sought after, loved, and forgiven by God. Send your Spirit and consecrate every one of us with its anointing, so that the Jubilee of Mercy may be a year of grace from the Lord, and your Church, with renewed enthusiasm, may bring good news to the poor, proclaim liberty to captives and the oppressed, and restore sight to the blind. We ask this through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Mercy, you who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever. Amen.

Could you not watch one hour with Me?" (Mark 14:37)

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and the snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host - by the Divine Power of God - cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who roam throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
