Today's Gospel Reflection

First Reading: 2 Sm 12:7-10, 13 * Psalm: Ps 32:1-2, 5, 7, 11 *
 Second Reading: Gal 2:16, 19-21 * Gospel: Lk 7:36 — 8:3 [7:36-50]

HOPE AND FORGIVENESS

There were some interesting conceptions of sin prevalent in the time of the Hebrew scriptures. There was the belief that God punished sin immediately. Those who suffered disease or misfortune were, therefore, sinners getting their due from the Almighty.

Her many sins have been forgiven because she has shown
GREAT LOVE

Today's first reading hints at another kind of God. When David admits his sin, Nathan declares, "The LORD on his part has forgiven your sin" (2 Samuel 12:13b). Here was not a vengeful God but a merciful God. What good news that must have been to David and those who, like him, could be honest enough to admit their sinfulness!

Jesus is the good news of God's mercy and forgiveness incarnate. Without Jesus, perhaps the good news would have been too good to believe, too difficult to imagine. But there he is in today's Gospel, the God-man, forgiving a sinner and declaring that she is forgiven because of her great love.

There is hope, then, for the rest of us sinners, if only we love enough!

Dear Parishioners and friends,

Have we pledged yet? On February 21st, we launched the 2016 Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA). After 15 weeks or as of May 29th, the number of participants are 451 parishioners and friends with total pledges of $39,619. We are still far from our goal of $70,000.

Let us all participate in the 2016 ACA. Any amount that we contribute will help our Diocese in funding its various projects. Pledge cards may be found in the pews, or you may get it from the parish office. You may return completed pledge card to the parish office, or drop it in the collection basket during Mass. Please make check payable to Diocese of San Diego. You may also give online at www.sdcatholic.org.

We extend our gratitude to all those who already responded and participated in the 2016 ACA.

Our response to the ACA is our response to Jesus who calls us and invites us to be His disciples.

*****

Do not forget your father or the person who has been a father to you. Include them in our Novena of Masses for fathers (living or deceased) which will begin on June 19 to 27. You may find envelopes in the pews, or get one from the parish office.

The Academy envisions itself as a partner with parents; sharing the educational ministry of the Church.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Last week's "Treasure" no doubt raised an eyebrow or two with the image of the deacons scurrying through the streets of Rome, or perhaps galloping on horseback, with fragments of eucharistic bread from the bishop's liturgy. These would be dropped into the chalice at outlying celebrations, presided over by presbyters, to express unity with the bishop, and perhaps also to remind the presbyters that they were not free agents. The Council of Laodicea forbade the custom of the fermentum in the year 348. Generally, one of the rules of interpreting law is that people don't make laws about things that aren't happening. So, by mid-fourth century, we have an important clue that what had once been a Roman custom had become widespread.

Interestingly, when the Church of England (and its related bodies) went through a liturgical renewal in the mid-nineteenth century, they reclaimed this custom from the mists of history. Today, it is the custom in some Anglican dioceses for a fragment of the host from the bishop's Holy Week liturgy (what we call the Chrim Mass) to be carried to every parish. On "Maundy Thursday" (our Holy Thursday), the fragment is dropped into the chalice to signify the parish's communion with the bishop. This modern revival of the fermentum is different from the "co-mingling" action we are used to, in which a fragment of the consecrated bread is dropped into the chalice just before Communion.

STEWARDSHIP

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time
Weekend of June 11/12, 2016

In today's Gospel we encounter the Pharisee who is rather inhospitable to Jesus. He doesn't seek Jesus' friendship. And yet the unknown woman who appears is quite eager to be where Jesus is and to show him her tremendous gratitude. She does some extraordinary things: She gets down by Jesus' feet, and, weeping, she wets his feet with her tears and wipes them with her hair! She even kisses his feet and anoints them with some perfumed oil. The woman lavishes her love and appreciation for Jesus. Christian stewards show their love for Jesus in tangible ways every day. Others don't really seek his friendship. Who are we more apt to be like in this Gospel story, the Pharisee or the grateful woman?

- International Catholic Stewardship Council, Parish Enews

Jubilee Year of Mercy

June 12, 2016

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

On today's Jubilee for Those Sick and Suffering Disabilities, Jesus encounters a woman who is "spiritually ill." She is thus "disabled" from participating in Israel's worshiping community or polite society. Bathing Jesus' feet with tears, drying them with unveiled hair, anointing them (Luke 7:38) risk Jesus' becoming "unclean." Yet his mercy welcomes even such inappropriate behavior as her sincere manifestation of love: "Your sins are forgiven. Go in peace" (7:48, 50). Go not just in "peace," but in shalom, the all-enveloping, life-changing assurance of God's mercy. She is anonymous, "known in the city" only as "a sinful woman" (7:37). The character with name and religious title, "Simon the Pharisee" (7:36, 40), judges her harshly, but himself not at all, and thus forfeits God's mercy. This Jubilee Year of Mercy challenges us to self-examination. In which role do we most often cast ourselves, humble sinner or judgmental Pharisee? Jesus declares that only by an unflinching willingness to show mercy to fellow sinners can we hope to obtain mercy ourselves (see Misericordiae Vultus, 9).

A STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

For JUNE

Lord Jesus Christ,

You came to bring peace and offer reconciliation. You sent your Spirit to heal the separation between people, and to reveal how it is possible for women and men to overcome their differences and celebrate their unity through your body and blood. You revealed your Father as the Father of all people; a Father who cares for every single individual and embraces them with love and mercy. It is that love and mercy, made manifest by your cross, that shines your light on us all, creates new life, offers a new way of living, and brings a Gospel message that is a sign of hope. Give us the courage to live your Gospel fully even when it brings risk, to share your word vibrantly even if it leads to scorn, and to respond to others generously even when we feel like holding back. Show us the way to live as good stewards of your presence among us, and in doing so, may we shine your light on a darkened world. Amen.

ORACIÓN DE CORRESPONSABILIDAD

para el Mes de JUNIO

Señor nuestro, Jesucristo,

Tú vienes a traer paz y a ofrecer reconciliación. Tú enviaste tu Espíritu para sanar la desunión entre la gente, y revelar cómo es posible para las mujeres y los hombres vencer sus diferencias y celebrar su unidad a través de tu cuerpo y de tu sangre. Tú revelaste a tu Padre como el Padre de toda la gente; un Padre que cuida de cada una de las personas y les abraza con amor y misericordia. Es ese amor y misericordia, manifestado a través de la cruz, que irradia tu luz sobre nosotros, crea nueva vida, ofrece una nueva manera de vivir, y trae un mensaje del Evangelio que es un signo de esperanza. Danos el valor para vivir tu Evangelio plenamente aunque ello implique riesgo, para compartir tu palabra vibrantemente aunque ello conduzca al desdén, y para responder a otros generosamente aunque sintamos el deseo de contenernos. Muéstranos el camino para vivir como buenos corresponsables de tu presencia entre nosotros, y al hacer esto, que irradiemos tu luz sobre un mundo oscurecido. Amén

"I think we too are the people who, on the one hand, want to listen to Jesus, but on the other hand, at times, like to find a stick to beat others with, to condemn others. And Jesus has this message for us: MERCY .... THIS IS THE MOST POWERFUL MESSAGE: MERCY!"

- Pope Francis

YEAR OF MERCY PRAYER

Lord Jesus Christ, you have taught us to be merciful like the heavenly Father, and have told us that whoever sees you sees Him. Show us your face and we will be saved. Your loving gaze freed Zacchaeus and Matthew from being enslaved by money; the adulteress and Magdalene from seeking happiness only in created things; made

Peter weep after his betrayal, and assured Paradise to the repentant thief. Let us hear, as if addressed to each one of us, the words that you spoke to the Samaritan woman: "If you knew the gift of God!" You are the visible face of the invisible Father, of the God who manifests his power above all by forgiveness and mercy: let the Church be your visible face in the world, its Lord risen and glorified. You willed that your ministers would also be clothed in weakness in order that they may feel compassion for those in ignorance and error: let everyone who approaches them feel sought after, loved, and forgiven by God. Send your Spirit and consecrate every one of us with its anointing, so that the Jubilee of Mercy may be a year of grace from the Lord, and your Church, with renewed enthusiasm, may bring good news to the poor, proclaim liberty to captives and the oppressed, and restore sight to the blind. We ask this through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Mercy, you who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever. Amen.

Congratulations to our graduates and their parents!

BE REMEMBERED FOREVER

and included in our Mass intentions. Have the names of your beloved departed inscribed on a brick in our Memorial Garden Walls. The names on the memorial walls will forever become part of the Garden. Call the parish office at 619-470-1977. Also ask about the PERPETUAL MEMORIAL WALLS (for the living and deceased) inside the church in the vestibule.

Names on these walls are included in our Mass intentions

"The spirit of humility is sweeter than honey, and whoever is fed by this sweetness produces fruit." - St. Anthony of Padua

ADORATION CHAPEL

(located adjacent to the parish office.)

Open from 8:30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Closed on Sundays & holidays.

Could you not watch one hour with Me?" (Mark 14:37)

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and the snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host - by the Divine Power of God - cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who roam throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
