Today's Gospel Reflection

First Reading: Eccl 1:2; 2:21-23 * Psalm: Ps 90:3-6, 12-14, 17 *
 Second Reading: Col 3:1-5, 9-11 * Gospel: Lk 12:13-21

HITTING IT BIG

It seems to be commonly accepted nowadays that everyone wants to win the lottery, hit the slots big at the casino, or be a millionaire. This attitude is akin to what the first hearers of the parable of the successful farmer would have thought: Why, of course he'd want to find a way to preserve his good fortune for the future, to secure for himself a life of leisure, eating, drinking, and merriment. It's exactly the kind of life that the right ticket, hand of cards, or quiz show answer might bring us today. Being surrounded by this "common wisdom" makes the words of Qoheleth, the psalmist, Paul, and Jesus all that much harder to hear today. Perhaps good fortune will be ours, perhaps it will not be. But if we make that fortune or the quest for it the heart, the very center, of our lives, then we will live to regret it. We will not achieve the future security we pursue, and we will lose the present moment in the chase.

Dear Parishioners and friends,

Isn't it Funny ...

- How a $20 bill seems so big when you take it to church, but so small when you take it to the mall or the casino;
- How people scramble to get the front seat at a concert, but want to take the back seat at a church service;
- How laborious it is to read a chapter in the Bible, but easy to read 200-300 pages of a best-selling novel;
- How people easily believe what the newspapers say, but question what the Bible says;
- How we are so quick to take directions from a total stranger when trying to find our way, but so hesitant to follow God's direction for our lives;
- How people want God to answer their prayers, but refuse to listen to His counsel;
- How difficult it is to learn the gospel well and spread the Word to others, but easily grasp and explain details of the latest gossip;
- How we can hardly think of anything to say when we pray, but fast in thinking of things to talk about others;
- How we call God "Our Father" and Jesus "Our Brother", but find it hard to introduce them to our family;
- How people think they are going to Heaven, but live as if there is no Hell;
- How when something goes wrong we cry, "Lord, why me?", but when things go right we say, "It must have been me!";
- How it is okay to blame God for the evil and suffering in the world, but it is not necessary to thank Him for what is good and pleasant;
- How we demand justice for others, but expect mercy from God;
- How we cannot fit a gospel meeting or an evening of recollection or a parish mission into our schedule or yearly planner, but can easily find time for other events at a moment's notice;
- How we get thrilled when a football game goes into overtime, but complain when a sermon goes longer than the regular time;
- How we look forward to that big date on Friday night or Saturday night, but complain about getting up for church on Sunday morning;
- How we rarely are late for work or for an appointment, but late when going to church;
- How short the time is when watching television/movie/concert, or playing sports, or sleeping, or surfing the internet, or chatting on Facebook, but how long is an hour to spend with God at Mass?

Make time for God in your life. Tomorrow may be too late for God.

Be a good steward... always rooted in Jesus Christ... always generous in sharing his/her time, talent and treasures.

Fr. Manny Ediza & Fr. Bernard Rañoa

Are you being called to serve God as a priest, deacon, or in consecrated life? Come and talk to your priests.

"Without the priest, the passion and death of our Lord would be of no avail. It is the priest who continues the work of redemption here on earth.... What use would be a house filled with gold, where there is no one to open its door? The priest holds the key to the treasures of heaven: it is he who opens the door: he is the steward of the good Lord; the administrator of His goods.... Leave a parish for twenty years without a priest and they will end by worshipping the beasts there... The priest is not a priest for himself, he is a priest for you."

- St. John Vianney, Feast Day August 4

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Sometimes the treasures of art can provide us with clues about traditions. Take, for example, the miter, the conical hat with lappets, or back-flaps that fall to the shoulders. This cap is worn by bishops in the Catholic West. Eastern Catholics favor a crown, but we have this curious headpiece. In Greek, the word means "turban." Old paintings and mosaics provide clues about headgear for bishops, and there is very little artistic evidence for the miter before the year 1000. Before then, some kind of head covering might have been worn to offset the damp and chill of unheated churches. The pope, as far back as the seventh century, often wore a cap called a camelaucum. Around that time, artists painting St. Peter began to portray their subject wearing this hat. By the year 1000 or so, the pope began to grant similar helmet-shaped headgear as gifts to visiting abbots and bishops. They returned home with these new chapeaus, and before long everybody wanted one!

Today, miters are granted not only to bishops, but to certain favored abbots and occasionally abbesses. Pope Benedict XVI set aside the tradition of the papal tiara in favor of the miter, even on his coat of arms. Pope Paul VI was the last pope to have a coronation. As recently as the 1960s, miters were towering skyscrapers of jewels and rich silks, but now a simplicity of style is favored by bishops. Miters are here to stay, and experienced altar servers know how to await the bishop's removing of the miter, since he does not wear it when he is saying the presidential prayers or the Eucharistic Prayer.

STEWARDSHIP

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Weekend of July 30/31, 2016

In today's Gospel, Jesus offers a warning to those who pursue leisure and pleasure as their goal in life without concern for the poor and less fortunate. He tells the parable of the wealthy landowner who, upon yielding an exceptionally profitable harvest one year, determines that he will live the rest of his days in relaxation; to eat, drink and be merry. God calls the miser a "fool" and lets him know that his greed and self-indulgence will not bring him the security he seeks. Good stewards acknowledge that the money and possessions entrusted to them are to be used to further the mission of Jesus Christ. This week let us reflect on our own daily consumption habits. Do we spend money on articles that make us better ambassadors of Christ? Does our personal lifestyle bring "good news to the poor" (Luke 4:18)?

- International Catholic Stewardship Council, Parish Enews

Jubilee Year of Mercy
July 31, 2016

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you" (Luke 12:20). Hardly sounds like mercy! Unlike some contemporary rich folks, there is no indication of lying, stealing, or cheating in Jesus' parable. The rich man made a living, not a killing. Why does Jesus name him "fool"? First, because of presumption. Five times in nine verses, the rich man declares, "I shall." God's not in charge here, I am! Second, selfishness—four times, "my/myself." No God, no neighbor; he talks to himself, about himself: my possessions, my productivity, my plans! So, instead of chasing "treasure for ourselves," Jesus and Pope Francis' Jubilee Year of Mercy bid us grow "rich in what matters to God" (12:21), namely, the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. Give food, drink, clothing, and healing; visit the imprisoned; bury the dead. Heal with Jesus' own gentleness the doubt, ignorance, and sins of others; comfort, forgive, be patient; and pray for the living and dead.

A STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

For JULY

Gracious God, You sent your Son to proclaim the Good News, inspire us in faith and show us the way to be good stewards of Your mercy. In this month of July dedicated to the Most Precious Blood of Jesus, grant us the wisdom to recognize that through His gift of the Eucharist there is but one cup of covenant and communion. Give us the courage to magnify Your presence in word and deed. And through Your Spirit teach us to live, no longer for ourselves, but in Christ Jesus who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.

ORACIÓN DE CORRESPONSABILIDAD

para el Mes de JULIO

Dios bondadoso, Tú enviaste a tu Hijo a proclamar las Buenas Nuevas, a inspirarnos en la fe y a mostrarnos el camino para ser buenos corresponsables de Tu misericordia. En este mes de Julio dedicado a la Preciosísima Sangre de Jesús, concédenos la sabiduría para reconocer que a través de su don de la Eucaristía hay sólo un cáliz de alianza y comunión. Danos el valor para magnificar tu presencia en palabra y en obra. Y a través de tu Espíritu enséñanos a vivir, ya no para nosotros, sino en Cristo Jesús quien vive y reina contigo y con el Espíritu Santo, un Dios por los siglos de los siglos. Amén.

YEAR OF MERCY PRAYER

Lord Jesus Christ, you have taught us to be merciful like the heavenly Father, and have told us that whoever sees you sees Him. Show us your face and we will be saved. Your loving gaze freed Zacchaeus and Matthew from being enslaved by money; the adulteress and Magdalene from seeking happiness only in created things; made

Peter weep after his betrayal, and assured Paradise to the repentant thief. Let us hear, as if addressed to each one of us, the words that you spoke to the Samaritan woman: "If you knew the gift of God!" You are the visible face of the invisible Father, of the God who manifests his power above all by forgiveness and mercy: let the Church be your visible face in the world, its Lord risen and glorified. You willed that your ministers would also be clothed in weakness in order that they may feel compassion for those in ignorance and error: let everyone who approaches them feel sought after, loved, and forgiven by God. Send your Spirit and consecrate every one of us with its anointing, so that the Jubilee of Mercy may be a year of grace from the Lord, and your Church, with renewed enthusiasm, may bring good news to the poor, proclaim liberty to captives and the oppressed, and restore sight to the blind. We ask this through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Mercy, you who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever. Amen.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and the snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host - by the Divine Power of God - cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who roam throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
