Today's Gospel Reflection

First Reading: Ex 17:3-7 * Psalm: Ps 95:1-2, 6-9
 Second Reading: Rom 5:1-2, 5-8 *
 Gospel: Jn 4:5-42 [5-15, 19b-26, 39a, 40-42]

THIRSTING FOR LIFE-GIVING WATERS

Especially during the Lenten, Holy Week, and Easter seasons, the prayer texts of the Eastern Church revel in paradoxical images of Christ: the eternal life who is put to death, the host of the supper who is also its meal, the thirsty crucified one with living water streaming from his side. These images flow from the evangelists' portrayals of Jesus and from his very ministry, during which he often upset or reversed people's expectations about him or the ways of God. This "reversal" is at play in today's Gospel, as Jesus speaks to an enemy foreigner who is also a woman beneath his status. In addition he, the thirsting one, shows the woman to be the one truly thirsting. He—whose parched lips will say "I thirst" before he dies—is the source of life and life-giving water. Lent calls upon us to dwell on how each of us is thirsting for Christ, and it leads us, ultimately, back to the life-giving waters of our baptism into his Body.

Dear Parishioners and friends,

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL. This weekend (March 18-19, 2017) we begin the 2017 Annual Catholic Appeal for the Diocese of San Diego.

I personally express my gratitude to all parishioners and friends who participated in last year's Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA). There were 839 parishioners and friends who pledged and contributed to the 2016 ACA with total pledges of $76,957.81. Total contributions actually received for 2016 ACA was $73,567.08. This includes amount of pledges paid and loose collections in pews on second collections at weekend Masses (one in February, and one in July 2016) totaling $4,781.85.

I would like to reiterate my invitation to participate in the Annual Catholic Appeal for our Diocese. Through your generous support to the Annual Catholic Appeal, the diocese is able to carry out its work of:

- Ministering to the poor, the marginalized and the imprisoned,
- Training new priests,
- Preparing couples for marriage,
- Training parish leaders to bring faith to children in our parish schools and religious formation programs,
- Forming permanent deacons,
- Caring for the retired priests who have given the whole of their lives in service to the Church, and
- Many other programs in the local churches in the Diocese of San Diego.

The theme of this year's appeal, "The Joy of Love", calls to mind what we experience in giving as well as what others experience in receiving.

I invite you to prayerfully consider making a sacrificial gift to the 2017 ACA. Your participation to the ACA is your response as a faithful steward of the gifts which God has joyfully bestowed on you.

As of this date you may have already received the brochure that was mailed to you. The brochure describes the many programs and ministries that are supported by your contribution to the ACA. Please use the Response Card to make your pledge, and drop it in the offertory basket or in the parish office. You may also go to www.giving.sdatholic.org for more information or to make a secure online pledge or donation.

Your participation, regardless of the amount, makes a difference. Your generosity brings you joy and brings joy to those who benefit from your gift. Be assured of my gratitude for your support and of my continuing prayers for you and your loved ones.

Fr. Manny Ediza

The mission of the Academy is to form young disciples to be spiritually, intellectually, and socially prepared to integrate gospel values for living a Catholic, Christian life in a secular world. We are committed to providing a Christian environment where students experience God through exploration of their lives and the wonders of His creation. The Academy envisions itself as a partner with parents; sharing the educational ministry of the Church.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Long ago, the custom of sending some pieces of consecrated bread from the Lord’s table began to take hold. Originally it was a way of assuring the sick and imprisoned of their bonds of faith and affection with the community from whom they were separated. By the third century, at least in Rome, we have evidence that the bishop would consign some of the sacred elements to presbyters or deacons.

There was a crisis in the unity of the church early on, called the quartodeciman controversy, since some people wanted to celebrate the Pasch on the fourteenth day (quartodecima) of the Jewish month Nissan, even if it didn’t fall on a Sunday. The debate so fractured the church that the historian of the era, Eusebius, reported a new development to the pope. He wrote that the churches holding to the Lord’s Day sent out consecrated bread to the disgruntled people of the quartodeciman pastors with whom they were quarreling. Meanwhile, bishops complained about people taking the Eucharist home. St. Cyprian told a cautionary tale of a sinful woman who tried to open the “casket” containing the consecrated bread in her home. She was deterred from receiving, he said, by flames erupting from the box. Clearly, he wanted people to think twice before bringing Communion home!

The Council of Nicaea defined the “old rule of the church” as allowing for reserving the eucharistic bread for the sake of the dying. The same council could foresee circumstances of persecution when people might have the Eucharist on hand to administer to one another in a time of great danger, literally, at the point of a sword. The first and enduring purpose for reserving the Eucharist is viaticum for the dying.

STEWARDSHIP

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

Third Sunday of Lent
Weekend of March 18/19, 2017

Jesus' longest-recorded conversation with anyone is the one he has with the Samaritan woman at the well. She discovers she can be honest with Jesus and goes and tells others about him. She gives witness. She's not the most certain, thorough or even convincing witness. But her witness is enough. It is inviting, humble, non-judgmental and sincere. What is the quality of our witness? How do our words and actions give daily testimony on behalf of Christ? During this season of Lent, how might we do a better job at proclaiming the risen Lord in word and deed?

- International Catholic Stewardship Council, Parish Enews

A STEWARDSHIP PRAYER for MARCH

Heavenly Father, Thank you for this new day, and another opportunity to give the traditions of Lent genuine meaning in my life. Help me to be a good steward of this day; to use it wisely to reflect on my words and deeds, review my habits, and correct my faults. Inspire me to live as Jesus did, to embrace his cross, and live the great paschal mystery in a way that gives hope to others. Be merciful to me this day. Forgive me my failings and weaknesses. Cultivate in me a humble and repentant heart. Prepare me for the renewal of my baptismal vows, today and throughout the season of Lent; so that at Easter I may truly rejoice in Christ Jesus, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, One God, forever and ever. Amen.

"Be a Part of the Dream — Together We Build"

THANK YOU FOR BEING PART OF THE DREAM!

RECONCILIATION AND THE GIFT OF PEACE

The season of Lent reminds us of the need for reconciliation. If the word reconciliation means anything in our lives, it means peace; such as the peace we experience after a difficult encounter when an apology is offered and accepted. There is also the peace of sitting in a church in the presence of the Lord and proclaiming to ourselves prayerfully that we are truly forgiven.

Each of us experiences a drift from our ideals. We have done foolish things in the past, been neglectful, said things out of anger or resentment. Perhaps we've even done dreadful things. Maybe we recognize that we have not been good stewards of our lives. We are not at peace. But peace can come to us if we sincerely present ourselves before the Lord and know that we are accepted and forgiven.

The Lord never tells us: "First, demonstrate your worth, and then I will reach out to you." The reality is that who we are now is who the Lord loves and accepts. Indeed, there is a sacrament available to us, a gift that expresses our desire for reconciliation with the Lord, and with each other. It is a gift that brings peace.

Good stewards proclaim the Gospel, and seeking reconciliation with the Lord, others and within ourselves is such a proclamation. The woman who came into the dining room where Jesus was having a meal, came not to proclaim her sinfulness, but to proclaim her gratitude for having been forgiven. She brings "alms" and performs a great act of generosity, kindness and service. She rubs expensive, perfumed oil into Jesus' hair (Matt. 26:11-13). The Lord's gifts of reconciliation and peace are meant to be proclaimed and shared by our own almsgiving and acts of forgiveness.

During Lent, let's reflect on forgiveness as a gift from the Lord that brings peace. Let's be good stewards of this gift by taking steps to seek peace for ourselves, and by our own generosity and kindness, bring peace to others. If we imitate the woman who anointed Jesus, we will be, as the Lord said, "known as long as the Gospel is preached." Christ's peace can be experienced in a special way this Lenten season. We need only take the first steps.

Oración de la Campaña para la Parroquia San Miguel

Padre Celestial pedimos por tu divina gracia, mientras en oración avanzamos hacia la realización de nuestro sueño, un Nuevo Centro Parroquial. Indicanos el camino para alcanzar las metas en nuestras creciente comunidad parroquial. Guianos para que nos comprometamos con verdadero espíritu de sacrificio. Ya que a través del sacrificio demostramos nuestro amor por Ti y por nuestros hermanos.

Guianos para usar sabiamente nuestro tiempo, talentos y dinero mientras avanzamos en esta santa visión. Inspiranos con tu gran amor, para ser igualmente generosos y construir Tu iglesia y nuestra parroquia.

Espíritu de Dios te alabamos y te adoramos. Rezamos para que Tu Espíritu nos fortalezca mientras trabajamos arduamente en la realización de nuestro sueño, para que las nuevas generaciones cosechen los frutos de nuestro sacrificio y de nuestro compromiso.

Te lo pedimos a través de Cristo Nuestro Señor. Amen.

Maria Madre de Dios, ruega por nosotros.

San Miguel, Arcángel, ruega por nosotros.

San José Constructor, ruega por nosotros.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and the snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host - by the Divine Power of God - cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who roam throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

“Be a Part of the Dream — Together We Build” CAMPAIGN PRAYER

Heavenly Father, we ask for Your divine guidance as we prayerfully move toward the realization of our new parish center.

Show us the way to meet the needs of our growing parish community. Lead us to committing ourselves with a spirit of true sacrifice. For it is always by sacrifice that we show our love of You and our neighbor.

Lead us to wisely use our time, talents and treasures as we move forward with Your holy vision. Inspire us all out of Your generous love, to be equally generous for strengthening Your Church and our parish.

Spirit of God, we praise You and adore You. We pray that Your Spirit will empower us to work strongly for the realization of our dream so that future generations will harvest the fruits of our commitments and sacrifice.

This we ask through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Mary Mother of God, pray for us.

St. Michael the Archangel, pray for us.

St. Joseph the Builder, pray for us.
