WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

GOSPEL OF MARK

Question:

In Year B, we hear primarily from the Gospel of Mark. Since each Evangelist has a unique perspective, what are the key issues that Mark addresses in his Gospel?

Answer:

Gospels are a particular faith community's reflection on Jesus. Each Gospel's author reflected that community's faith in Jesus. Jesus' message is made relevant to the community's situation and context. Mark was the first Gospel to be written. When Matthew and Luke wrote theirs, they imitated and adapted Mark for their communities.

Mark's Gospel seems to be addressed to a faith community undergoing turmoil, rejection, and persecution—forces that threaten to overwhelm them. This provides the context around which Mark fashions the story of Jesus. He presents Jesus as the One sent by God to confront the forces of evil. That is the good news of Jesus.

Jesus' struggle with the demonic forces leads to confrontation, rejection, outright opposition, and a conspiracy to do away with him. Realizing this, Jesus is not deterred. Rather Jesus calls for total faith in God who helps us to overcome the forces of evil. Suffering and even death seem to be the consequences of this struggle. Yet, that is not the end. The one who suffers for the sake of others, the suffering servant, will be the one through whom redemption and salvation will come to all. For Mark, this is what discipleship demands and what true faith in God can and will accomplish. See if you can detect these themes as you read Mark's Gospel.

CATHOLIC TRIVIA—JUST FOR FUN

Question: Who was the very first Pope to visit the Holy Land?

Answer: It was Pope Paul VI in 1964.

Worship & Meditation

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Recently I watched a bunch of YouTube videos on how to optimize willpower in the face of weakness. The message was: do not accept your weakness. Crush it. Dominate it. In one video, however, at the end of a rant by a willpower coach, the muscular stoic admitted, "You'll never actually get what you want, no matter how hard you try." Amazingly, he admitted that willpower alone is not sufficient for us weak-willed humans.

What does God want us to do with our weaknesses, if crushing them with willpower won't work? For example, what should I do with my tendency to arrogance and self-isolation? Or my procrastination? Or my intellectual and physical limitations? Or my selfishness?

The counter-intuitive answer is clear in this week's words from St Paul, "I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses in order that the power of Christ may dwell in me (2 Cor. 12:9)." Boast of our weaknesses? Paul isn't promoting weak-mindedness or laziness. Rather, he perceives that Jesus loves us not despite our weaknesses but because of them. Boasting of our weakness means claiming human will is not all we have. It means turning to God whenever we feel weak, which—let's face it—is almost all the time. When we do, we learn to love our weaknesses, because it's there that we meet the strength of Christ. This week, I challenge us to find ways to boast not in willpower but in weakness.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP SET ASIDE SKEPTICISM

Sometimes we need a dose of healthy skepticism. Do you see some of the claims on the Internet, in social media, or even on the cover of supermarket tabloids? If we are not careful, we can easily be led astray.

However, when we find ourselves skeptical all the time, unable to trust anyone or anything, we have a problem. Trust is essential in a conversion process, and we all are in a continual process of turning toward and moving closer to God. If we find it hard to trust the promises of God, then we will find ourselves lost and bewildered.

Sometimes the biggest obstacle to a stewardship way of life is lack of trust. This is true for individuals as well as parish communities. Do we believe that God will provide for our needs? Do we believe that if we give it all away we will receive even more in abundance? Do we believe that there is true freedom in complete surrender?

Many will say that the principles of a stewardship way of life sound good spirituality and are inspiring. But when really faced with the tough decisions, they will fall back on placing trust in themselves, material goods, or money. Are we true disciples and good stewards as we claim? Where do you place your trust? Have you chosen a path where you are all in or are you still keeping something for yourself because you just aren't sure all this talk of "consider the lilies" is real or just pretty words on a page?

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners and friends,

It is summertime! Again, we remind everybody, especially the ladies, to dress modestly when entering the church. When we go to a party, we ask and follow the dress code. There is also a dress code when we enter a church. Isn't it appropriate to also dress properly when we go to the House of God? A modest attire is an expression of respect.

"Modesty is a fruit of the Holy Spirit and should be sought after by all of us. Parents (and other responsible adults) have a special responsibility to guard the modesty of children and to provide a good example." (www.mycatholicsource.com)

"Give to the Lord the glory due His name; adore the Lord in holy attire."
- Psalm 29:2

This weekend, Fr. Berny Agustines, our guest priest, will make an appeal for your donation and support for his parish, the Sto. Tomas De Villanueva Parish in Badian, Cebu (Archdiocese of Cebu, Philippines). His parish was severely affected during the typhoon "Odette" on which Rev. Fr. Leo Fernandez (the pastor at that time) lost his life in the flood. His parish needs sufficient resources and funds to fully refurbish and repair all the damages caused by the typhoon. Please, be generous.

PRAYER FOR OUR TRUTH

Dear Lord, Your prophets were those who spoke Your Truth. Help me to be a speaker of truth as well, one who reminds of Your love, encourages the lowly, and points ever more deeply to You. Amen.

PRACTICING CATHOLIC— RECOGNIZING GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

A PROPHET AND HIS NATIVE PLACE

"A prophet is not without honor except in his native place." It could be the slogan of high school reunions everywhere.

I speak from experience — I didn't go to my high school reunion, but I do live in the same area in which I grew up. Ghosts from the past lurk in every grocery aisle and gas station. Former classmates fill my prescriptions at the pharmacy. I am always sure to see an old teacher or two at the Fourth of July parade.

If my teenage self knew that this was her future, she would be horrified. She wanted to grow up and move away, not because she didn't like living in this town, but because she wanted to reinvent herself. And you can't reinvent yourself in your native place. In your hometown, you'll always be exactly what you are — no more, no less.

The same was true for Jesus, who was probably the only person actually worthy of admiration at his high school reunion. When he returned to his native place, he was what he had always been — God and man, Messiah, miracle-worker. This is not something he became, it was always within him.

But the people of Nazareth cannot accept it. Why?

Well, probably for the same reason that I wanted to reinvent myself when I was 16. We don't often see anything worth venerating in the "right now" of our lives. We think happiness is a promotion or a pay bump away. We think we'll finally be holy when we find the time to take that silent retreat. We think we will be beautiful when we lose ten pounds.

The Nazarenes lived with God right under their noses, and they didn't realize it. So, when he came in all his greatness, the dissonance was too much to bear, and they rejected him. They didn't want that God — the one they had dismissed or overlooked or ignored. They wanted a different one. A shinier one. One that didn't look like the "right now" of their lives.

But that's where God is, folks. He's in the right now, and nowhere else. He's waiting there for you, with all the happiness, holiness, and beauty your life needs.

Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house." — Mark 6:4

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Weekend of July 6/7, 2024

Today's Gospel reveals Jesus being amazed that the people in his hometown of Nazareth do not accept his teaching and ministry; he is amazed at their lack of faith (Mk6:6). Good stewards recognize and participate in Christ's teaching, reconciling and healing presence in their community. Are we good stewards of our family of faith? Do we value and support the ministries that take place in Christ's name? Are we attentive to the movement of the Holy Spirit in our parish and encourage those who work to enhance our life of faith?

Meditación del Evangelio

ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA (Gospel Meditations)

Todos, en algún momento de nuestra vida, somos testarudos y obstinados, nos encaprichamos en nuestras ideas y nada ni nadie nos hace cambiar de opinión. Nos volvemos irrazonables y no escuchamos consejo alguno. Creemos que el mundo está a nuestros pies y que lo podemos controlar todo. Sin embargo, no es así. Lo podemos ver en la primera lectura de hoy. El pueblo israelita era rebelde e infiel a sus creencias. Por eso Dios dijo al profeta lo siguiente: "Te envío donde esa raza de cabezas duras y de corazones obstinados para que les digas: ¡Esta es la palabra de Yavé...!" (Ezequiel 2:4). ¿Me he rebelado contra Dios? ¿Soy obstinado en mis ideas? El mundo, la sociedad y todos nosotros necesitamos la misericordia de Dios para ser mejores, para que el corazón obstinado y rebelde se abra a la gracia de Dios tan necesaria en nuestra vida.

El poder de Dios se manifiesta en nuestra debilidad. Eso es precisamente lo que el Evangelio de hoy nos manifiesta. Aparentemente, los que escuchaban a Jesús en la sinagoga no lo creían capaz de ser sabio y mucho menos ser el Hijo de Dios. Por eso se preguntaban atónitos: "¿De dónde le viene todo esto? ¿Y qué pensar de la sabiduría que ha recibido, con esos milagros que salen de sus manos?" (Marcos 5:2). Cómo era posible que un perfecto desconocido hablara con sabiduría e hiciera milagros como Dios. Además, era hijo de María y de un carpintero insignificante. ¿Cuál es la enseñanza de Jesús para nosotros hoy? No olvidemos, con su gracia nos basta.

A GOOD STEWARDS' PRAYER

Loving Father, you alone are the source of every good gift.

We praise you for all your gifts to us, and we thank you for your generosity. Everything we have, and all that we are, comes from you. Help us to be grateful and responsible. You have called us to follow your son, Jesus, without counting the cost. Send us your Holy Spirit to give us courage and wisdom to be faithful disciples.

We commit ourselves to being good stewards. Help us to be grateful, accountable, generous, and willing to give back with increase. Help us to make stewardship a way of life.

We make this prayer through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

MEMORARE OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

REMEMBER, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly to thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

When Jesus taught in the synagogue of his native place, he didn't fit the image of the Messiah the people expected. They dismissed him. Let's learn from their example and remember that God often comes to us in forms that are surprising — even challenging.

MEMORARE TO ST. JOSEPH (Recited every Wednesday at 8:00am Mass)

Remember most pure spouse of Mary, ever Virgin, my loving protector, Saint Joseph, that no one ever had recourse to your protection or asked for your aid without obtaining relief. Confiding, therefore, in your goodness, I come before you and humbly implore you. Despise not my petitions, foster-father of the Redeemer, but graciously receive them. Amen.

PATER NOSTER,

qui es in cœlis; sanctificetur nomen tuum: Adveniat regnum tuum; fiat voluntas tua, sicut in cœlo, et in terra.

Panem nostrum cotidianum da nobis hodie: Et dimitte nobis debita nostra, sicut et nos dimittimus debitoribus nostris: et ne nos inducas in tentationem: sed libera nos a malo.
Amen.

GIVE A SPECIAL AND LASTING GIFT TO A LOVED ONE (birthday, anniversary, or graduation gift). Give them honor or tribute for yourself in the Perpetual Memorial Wall of our Shrine of Our Lady of Sorrows. Visit the Parish Office for details.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and the snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host - by the Divine Power of God - cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who roam throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Congratulations Fr. Manny!
